Is now open
ULPHUR, SALINE and GAS.
The REJUVENATING WATERS so much sought for in years are being past.
Invalids! Attention!
Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Digestive organs, Diseases in connection with Affections of the Liver and Kidneys, are positively cured by the use of these Waters for a few weeks.
Rheumatics! Read!
Hundreds of Rheumatics have been cured by the Caledonia Baths. Suffering is also relieved by the Air, and cripples throw away their crutches after a short bath.
TESTIMONIALS.
Montreal, 28th July, 1875.
"I hereby certify that I entertain a very favorable opinion of the Baths and Waters of the Caledonia Springs in many forms of disease, among which I would especially mention chronic Rheumatism, the Diseases of the Kidneys, some of the varieties of Cutaneous disease, Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, and in carefully selected cases, some of the diseases of the Kidney and Bladder.
(Signed) GEO. W. CAMPBELL, A.M., M.D.
Dean of the Medical Faculty, McGill College.
Dr. Wm. Robertson, of Montreal, wrote as follows, in 1849:—"But the disease above all in which the action of the water is most decided is Rheumatism. * * * I have known a few individuals who suffered much from improper use of mercury who were restored to health by the use of the waters.
ACCOMMODATIONS.
A magnificent new hotel, capable of accommodating 300 guests, will be open on June 1st for the accommodation of visitors. The grounds have been improved and beautified, and every means for amusement and exercise provided. The high timber by the Ottawa River is most enjoyable, and a retreat from the river to the Springs is the cause of comparative chill. The railroad is built, comfortable carriages will be in waiting at the wharf for the conveyance of visitors to the Springs. The distance of the Springs from Montreal and Ottawa respectively is about 60 miles.
Mr. W. CHAMPNESS will open a good Livery Stable, providing good carriages, horses, saddles, &c. There is a good race course on the property of the Company.
The CANADIAN WATERS of these Springs will yet make Caledonia the greatest resort in the world for health and pleasure seekers. Thousands of testimonials might be inserted, but the reputation of the Springs renders unnecessary to do so.

The Times says the general depression continues here and on the continent, partly owing to the apprehensions of political complications, but in a great measure due to the mere absence of business.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Assassinated.

PANAMA, Aug. 25—President Garcia Moreno of Renverdo was assassinated in his palace at Quito on the 6th inst., news of which has caused agreat sensation along the coast. Details as brought by the steamship Islay from Guyaquit, which arrived here on 13th are to the following effect:—The whole city of Guayaquit was thrown into a state of excitement on account of the news having reached there of the assassination of Garcia Moreno in his palace, at Quito, on the 6th inst., by an officer, Captain Rago, whom he had displaced from some office, and by two young men of Quito. One called Comejo Rayo first struck the President over the head or shoulder with a machette, and was instantly run through by the sentry on duty, who fired his piece at the same time, killing the assassin. Immediately the two young men after Rayo had struck the President fired on the latter with their revolvers. The President fell on his face mortally wounded, and has since died. The two young men escaped. A correspondent at Guagaquit gives another account of the tragic occurrence.
It appears that the President was attacked by five Granadinos, "Colombiana" in Quito, one of whom was killed on the spot, and the President as well. The other story is that the revolution in favour of the Liberal candidate for the Presidency, was got up by Gen. Polanco, who had been disgraced by the President. Nothing was positively known. We have no information except what government chooses to publish. At the time the steamer Guagaquit left, no disturbance had taken place.

He expecting that the patient would die from her appearance when he saw her, and at once gave a certificate to the effect. The person died from congestion of the lungs; the doctor also says that the woman he saw on that occasion was more like 32 years of age than 23, and he draws the deduction that Mrs. Laing and the person he saw are not the same, and that the certificate he granted was not used for the removal of the body of that person. James Amor in his testimony swore that he gave the certificate to the baggage man on the train and that he kept it but the police have discovered the train man to whom it was given, and he swears according to usual custom he handed it back to Amor. A Widow's Grief Assuaged.

A MIND SET AT REST BY AN INTERVIEWER WITH A MATTER-OF-FACT CORONER.

The other day a tall, thin woman from over the river hunted around Vicksburg until she found Coroner Blessing, whose retiring disposition and prompt attention to business are certain to make him famous all over the State within the coming year, and when she was certain of her man, she enquired:
"Business ain't drawing now, is it?"
"Well, nothing to brag of. I get a floater or a nigger now and then, but it isn't anything like old times."
She heaved a sigh, and continued:
"Sam is missing."
"Sam, Sam," he repeated.
"Yes, my ole man. It's nigh on to twelve weeks since he started to cross the river about six miles above here, and I'm getting anxious. I thought I'd drop down and see if you remembered of having set on such a man."
"About twelve weeks ago—let's see? I believe I did pull in a floater some ten or eleven weeks since."
"Was he a tall man?"
"Yes, I think he was."
"Have a long nose and brick-colored hair."
"Yes, I remember now."
"Cownide shoes and a yallar coat on?"
"Yes—I got that very man."
"A riz to the surface and was pulled in here, sat according to law, and duly buried?"
"He was, madam. And do you believe that the body was that of your missing husband?"
"I know it! He could drive mules or paddle a dug out with any man in Louisiana, but he couldn't swim worth cobs. His canoe flopped over, he went under, and that's reason he didn't come home."
"And do you want the body exhumed so as to make sure?"
"Was he put down to stay?"
"He was well buried madam."
