Local Intelligence.

Don't forget the sale of Mr. Chapman's Furniture to-day, commencing at 10 a.m.

St. Andrew's Society's Games.—The sum of about $200 will be realized, over and above expenses, from the late meetings and games. It will add considerably to the benevolent fund for the approaching winter.

ORGAN Recital.—There will be a Grand Organ Recital in St. Patrick's Church on Monday evening the 6th September. The proceeds go to aid the Rev. Father Steeves in the purchase of the new organ for his church at Almonte.

The furniture to be sold at Chapleau's day is in excellent order, all as good as new.

Clothing or a Cabinet Factory.—The cabinet factory of Messrs. Oliver & Son at the Chaudiere has reduced its operations to a very small scale, owing to the want of work and the full times. Nearly all the employees have been discharged.

GENDREAU'S Shaving and Haircut Saloon.—No 3 Rattee's Block, Wellington street. Adele M. Gendreau, proprietor.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Treasurer of the County of Carleton General Protestant Hospital acknowledges the receipt of the following sum: $60.00; Royal Orange Lodge, No. 47, $20; Royal Orange Lodge, Cumberland, $20.—Total, 32.50.

POLICE COURT.

Read Mr. Birmingham's advertisement sale of household furniture at Mrs. McFarland's, on Rideau Street, at ten o'clock on Monday next.

PRESENTS.—Ald. Christie has returned from his recent trip to England. He came out by the Peruvian. He feels greatly invigorated after his tour across the Atlantic.

HOSPITALITY TO FIRMEN.—After the fire in Mr. Gagné's store on Wellington street yesterday, Mr. Jackson, whose premises were adjacent, invited the members of the Chaudiere Fire Company into his establishment, and in the most hospitable manner treated them to eatables and drinkables. The boys duly appreciated Mr. Jackson's kindness, and did ample justice to the viands before him.

WHOEVER gets that beautiful marble top bed room suite to be sold at Chapleau's Thursday next, by Mr. Birmingham, will be fortunate.

OBITUARY.—It is with sincere regret that we learn of the death, last evening, of the Rev. J. A. Gordon, of the King Street Methodist Church, from typhoid fever. He has been a beloved member of the congregation, and it is evident even now that the rev. gentleman had recovered. He, however, breathed his last yesterday, amid the sorrowing of many friends. The members of the congregation feel deeply affected at the loss they have sustained, he having been but recently appointed to the charge of the King Street Church.

Mr. Birmingham will sell at Mr. Chapleau's on O'Connor street, on Thursday, 26th inst., at 10:30, some very fine Walnut furniture.

CROCKETT.—The Canadian Cricket Team will leave for Philadelphia on the 16th of September next. On the 11th September they will play any fifteen cricketers at Toronto, and on the following Monday will have a game with the English team. They will then proceed to Montreal, where they will play in Philadelphia where the great international match Canada vs. the United States will be played. Rev. T. D. Phillips is the captain of the team, and in his hands has been left the selection of the cricketers who shall represent Canada. Phillips is a man of the highest possible doubt that the selection made will prove everybody. Two have been chosen from Ottawa; one from Montreal; two from Toronto; one from Chatham; two from Hamilton; one from Port Hope; one from Halton, and one from Fredericton.

CHURCH SCHOOL.—We are requested to state that the Church School authorities have succeeded in securing part of the block almost opposite their late premises, but, owing to the difficulty of negotiations with the owners, the school has not yet opened. The school is in a parlous condition, and the employees have been discharged.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Treasurer of the County of Carleton General Protestant Hospital acknowledges the receipt of the following sum: $60.00; Royal Orange Lodge, No. 47, $20; Royal Orange Lodge, Cumberland, $20.—Total, 32.50.

THE JARS.—These peculiar ornaments performed for the last time before a fair audience in the hall of the Mechanics' Institute. These tricks are numerous and varied as well as their acrobatic performances. The entertainment throughout was highly interesting and did not fail in amusing the audience.

ENGLISH MAIL.—An English Mail will close at the City Post Office, to-morrow (Friday) at 2:15 o'clock p.m. destined for the steamer Saratoga which sails from Quebec for Liverpool on Saturday. A supplementary bag will close at 1:25 p.m. for the same destination, but will contain only registered matter.

If you want a good shave, or your hair cut stylish, go to Gendreau's, No. 3 Rattee's Block, Wellington street.

WATER PIPES.—The Water Commissioners have commenced laying pipes in St. Paul street between Bassett and Nichole streets. It is to be regretted that the pipes were not at once continued to Nelson street. Sandy Hill so as to enable the City Engineer to complete the grading of St. Paul street now under way, as there was not the street is paved and metal put upon it, that the street should again be torn up and put out of repair.

GUARDS' BAND.—An immense concourse of people assembled again last night to hear the band of the Royal Canadian Foot Band play on Parliament Square.

A very select programme was gone through to the utmost satisfaction of all who had the pleasure of hearing this open air concert. It must be a source of satisfaction to Mr. Carter and his associates to find that their efforts are duly appreciated by the public.

Those requiring Mattresses, Furniture, &c., for the coming exhibition, would do well to call at Geo. R. Dochtery's 62 Rideau street, late Whiteside & Co. Co. Costs nothing to examine.

NEW POR ORNAM.—Considerable progress is being made with the roof and tower of the new post office which will be completed now in a few days. It will be well if the grounds around the tower will be given over to the growing of flowers before the holding of the Provincial Exhibition next month. The many points of interest in and around the city should be made to show to the best possible advantage to strangers visiting the city at that time.

WARRIOR & CLARK'S MISSES.—This celebrated troupe open their first entertainment in Gowan's Grand Opera House this evening. They come with a fine reputation and comprise a regular galaxy of stars in the ministerial profession. In addition to the regular program, there will be a very select and variegated puritan entertainment. There will doubtless be a full house to greet the return of the favorites to the Capital.

Go to Chapleau's for a handsome parlour suite, a grand piano, and marble top bed room suite, a marble top centre table, go to Chapleau's sale to-day by J. W. Birmingham.

FURNITURE.—At No. 5, Rideau Street, Mr. W. A. Ainslie has a hand in a very large variety of furniture of every description and of the newest style. On Saturday last we paid his establishment a visit and were well pleased with everything we saw. Whether for the drawing room, the parlor, the bed room, the library, or any other room, he has a choice, and we learned that Mr. Ainslie is preparing to give up the retail business and deal only by wholesale. Persons desiring really good furniture at very moderate prices will do well by paying Mr. Ainslie a visit, unless present circumstances, in neither auction rooms nor elsewhere can he be undersold in the city.
