MAYOR SPILIVAN, of Kingston, rose to move that the City of Kingston be the next place for holding the Exhibition. He thought as the city was deprived of her turn last year by Ottawa, she should at least get it this year. He was prepared, on behalf of the Corporation, to guarantee

SHERIFF FERGUSON of Kingston, seconded the proposition. They had erected permanent buildings in Kingston, and he trusted the delegates would do justice to the City of Kingston in by the Mayor. He was of opinion that it would benefit all those interested in the welfare of the Association. It was said Guelph who would visit the Exhi! ition, but 17,000 had attended the Central Fair, and no inconvenience arose from this great number being in that town. He expressed much satisfaction at the grounds and accommodation in Ottawa, but thought the grounds in Gueigh would even excel these of Ottawa. He would not advocate the claims of Guelph in apposition to that of any other place, but heave it on its own

THE CENTENNIAL.

Mr. Ina Mosuan moved that this meet ing felly endorses the action taken by the Dominion Government in having the pro ducts of the field represented at the Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia, and recommend to the Ortario Government the favorable consideration of the deairability of making a liberal appropriation for such purposes, and we bereby individually land collectively pledge ourselves to further to the best of our ability the carrying out of the objects contemplated by the commission,

Mr McDougall, the commissioner of Ontario explained that the Province should be represented by comuses in the matter of grain, at Philadelphia. No definite action was taken in re ard to advice of the Agricultural and Arts Association. The same might be said of roots and vegetables. He regretted that a great anathy existed in regard to the exhibition of manufactures. He trusted that all true lovers of their country would make an endeavour to have the Exhibition a

Mr FRASER, Secretal of the Advisory Board, said it afforded him a great deal of pleasure in addressing such an important meeting on the subject of the World's Fatt at Philadelphia next year. He explained that a good Exhibition there would develop commerce. The United States sold their countries, why should we subject ourselves to this system. He thought a good show at Philadelphia would result in opening up a direct trade with foreign markets He hoped a more vigorous action would be taken by the people in regard to this matter, and that every effort would be put forth to have a successful exhibition on the part of the Dominion of Canada. The resolution was carried unanimously.
