

Local Intelligence.

CITY C.—Annual meeting of the City Council will be held to-night for the transaction of general business.

WELLINGTON WARD MARKET.—The new market building in Upper Town is being roofed, a work which will doubtless be accomplished by winter time.

REVIEW OF TRAINS.—The trains on the two lines of road leading to the city will resume their regular hours of running to-day, so that passengers had better consult the old time table.

KING STREET, NEW.—The contract for the proposed branch sewer on King street, between the main sewer and King street, will be let this evening at the meeting of the City Council.

HEAD MR. BERMINGHAM'S advertisement of household furniture, shop fixtures, drugs, &c., to be sold by auction at Mr. Bishopric's residence, Maria street, on Thursday next, at eleven o'clock.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.—Last night about half past eight o'clock the alarm was sounded and the brigade turned out without their usual promptitude—and all for nothing! A chimney on fire in Letter O was the cause of the alarm.

LOSE OUT FOR BERMINGHAM.—The auction of 7½ acres New York pianos, black walnut and marble top, bedroom suites, parian and drawing room suites, secretary book cases, cylinder desks and other furniture to be advertised in a day or two.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL.—The visitors this week are—Directors: Messrs. George Mortimer and Robert Cummings, Clergy—Rev. F. W. Farre and Colliston. Ladies Committee: Miss Pollard and Miss Thorburn. Physician: Dr. P. A. McDougal.

LIBERAL GRANT.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Art Association held on Saturday morning a resolution was adopted granting $4,500 towards the expenses incurred by Ottawa in fitting up its buildings and grounds for the exhibition.

DOMINION METHODIST CHURCH.—It is stated that this Church received about seven hundred dollars from the booth and supporting refreshments in the exhibition department, the taking to pieces of the various apparatus seemed to attract considerable attention. By four o'clock there were but a few articles remaining, and the Thirtieth Provincial Exhibition, which was to have been held at railway stations and wharves in the afternoon, was a very hasty appearance; passengers and articles were being disposed of East and West, and it would be almost impossible to calculate the numbers of the persons who the Saturday afternoon left the exhibition at the time of the departure of the various trains, but they were of such magnitude as to warrant the belief that the coffers of the Company must have been very considerably benefitted by the holding of the exhibition in Ottawa. The following is the program in the Heslingtonian department, which was one of the most interesting features of the whole affair. Ottawa was capital representative, and the exhibitors from this District did well. The subjacent classes makes the list of premiums complete:

THIRTIETH ANNUAL FAIR.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Exhibition Grounds on Saturday presented rather a different aspect to what they did on the previous days. Instead of the throngs of people busily engaged in inspecting the various articles shown, there was nothing to be seen save men removing the same to the various railroad stations and other means of transmission from the city. The tearing down of the booths which had been erected by the persons who had purchased the privilege of selling refreshments was in active progress, and by the evening they were nearly dismantled. The Treasurer, Mr. Graham, was kept most busily employed in paying the premiums, and his was no sinecure, for on the Saturday he was pestered with all sorts of complaints from people who thought they ought to have received first prize, instead of second or third, and he was compelled to say that the decision of the judges could not be reversed; "that action being impressed upon all grumblers, although there was literally nothing to see, there were several visitors to the grounds who seemed to take an interest in the operations of the various apparatus, seemed to attract considerable attention.
