PATHER CHINIQUYS LECTURE.

The Rev. Father Chiniquy delivered his second lecture in Gowan's Hall last night to a large audience, among whom were several members of the fair sex. The Rev. Mr. Campbell presided, and among those present were the Rev. Messrs, Hunter and oung. The proceedings opened, as on he previous evening, with religious exer ises, at the conclusion of which the ecturer came forward and commence i his liscourse. In his opening remarks he against them. He detailed n strong terms the evils resulting from having a closed bible among the nations. When called upon by Papal authority to give up the reading of the sacred volume, rose nations who had adopted Protesantism, said they would sacrifice their ives sooner than their bibles. The Popes had called upon the monarchs of Europe. at different times, to put to the sword all those heretics who had resisted his authority, and how that was carried out tholmew. He spoke of the scenes Piedmont, when he said he had the mount in from the 'ofty peaks which Protestants had been hurled to the cruel rocks below; but the time came when after all the barbarities had been perpetrated, the Popes had been defeated by their own people, their own armies and their own arms. He alluded to the efforts made by the priests to get the Protestant youth into their schools and colleges. He said the Pope had written letters to his bishops and clergy, and he had seen those letters, in which it was them that if they would Canada and the United States they must build colleges and numeries, making them as attractive as rossible, and when once they had got a hold upon the young, the old would soon follow, and continue_to do so until the countries were under papal rule. THANCERY BALE

An effort is being made to put the Dully Witness of New York upon a more satisfactory basis. According to explana Mill Site & Machinery. ines Company versus Johnston, there will be a ld with the appropriation of John Butterfield, E-q., the Master of this Court at L'Orignal, by Martin Costello Auctioneer, at the site of the lute steam mit of Thomas Ross, in the mill-yard of Mesers Hamilton Brothers, at Hawkesbury, at the bur of one o'clock in the afternoon it is thought the paper might be continued. The Weekly Witness is reported as 18.5, the following land and premises: having 82,000 subscribers and yet an addition of 20,000 is required to make it pay. A number of special subscriptions have been promised; and a few warm and premises:
