

LUKE TRAVERS.

A Fair of the Dominion, Commencing on 10th Inst.

The great object of the leading men in Quebec, friendly to Sir Charles Metcalfe, was to secure the return of all the members of the "antagonism" party...

Mr. Nelson was only supported by a boy of some eighteen years, country under the name of "Canada," and a few other poor and friendless. This youth having seen the appearance of a girl in the crowd...

Mr. Nelson's speech was not only a model of eloquence, but also a model of logic. He showed that he was not only a man of letters, but also a man of sense...
