ECCLESIASTICAL FREEDOM.

The opening of the new building for professors of Knox's College, the training been a carper—one of those unfortunate school for the Ministry of the Presbyof Canada, was the occasion of what might properly enough be entitled an with somebody—there was no need for ecclesiastical fole. The most eminent clergymen of the Presbyterian Church were there, including the venerable Dr. Cook, Moderator of the Gunerai Assembly, and spirited and appropriate addresses were delivered by that gentleman, the professors of the college, and several of the young and promising men of the church. Among the latter may be ranked the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, of St. Andrew's Church, Toronte, who has of late years been rising rapidly in the estimation of his coreligionists, and has fairly established his reputation as a speaker and thinker of great ability and more than ordinary learning. This reverend gentleman took as much interested in some matters as the opportunity offered him at the opening ceremonial to say a few words which have caused a great deal of commotion in -Presbyterian and other Protestant circles upon the above subject, and possibly, if discussing the point at which Mr. Macdonnell aimed with considerable vigour. propriate for the purpose, but that after of the electors of this township to receive who afforded her no relief, she was purall is a matter of opinion. What Mr. their votes as to whether or not the so- suaded to try Fellows' Syrup of Hypo-Macdonnell did was, impartially regarded, nothing more than to enter a plea for libera'ity in discussing the principles laid down in the Westminster Confession of Faith. Coming from a elergymanand the clergy of all churches are re markable for their Conservatism-the liberality was remarkable, and perhaps significant; it might have been much more readily expected from a layman, 12 per cent. of the taxes.
