The Times.

OTTAWA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1876.

THE DAVE GILMORE TRAGEDY.

No man ever died so miserably as Dave Gilmore. He was a man of some means, and his family were well-to-do. He had a wife and several children. He was a man of some means, and his family were well-to-do. He had a wife and several children.

with the brokerage? Nothing whatever. The truth is that Mr. White and the Opposition organs have been caught in a very ugly attempt to mislead the public, and they are not very certain whether it would be better to brash it out or give it up.

THE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

The Catholic Temperance Union of Ontario are to be congratulated upon the success of the Convention just held in this city. As one of the speakers Bishop Doane said, if the remainder of the year were marked, there are those who do not quite agree with the views emanated by the Union and other temperance societies.
