that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria as lawful Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of this Dominion of Canada, dependent on and belonging to the said Kingdom, and that will defend Her to the utmost of my power against all traitorous conspiracies or attempts whatever, which shall be made against Her Person, Crown and Dignity, and that I will do my utmost endeavours to disclose and make known to Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, all entrusted in obtaining brokerage, and treasons or traitorous conspiracies and without any equivocation, mantal evasion or secret reservation, and renouncing all pardons and dispensations from any person or power to the contrary.

I --- do solemnly and sincerely promise and swear that I will duly and faith fully, and to the best of my skill and knowledge; execute the powers and trusts reposed in me as (Chief Justice, or as one of the Judges) of the Supreme Court, and of the Exchequer Court of Canada. SO HELP UB GOD Mr. Justice Strong, of Ontario; Mr.

ustice Taschereau and Mr Justice Fournier, of Quebec, and Mr. Justice Henry, of Nova Scotia, each subscribed to the oath prescribed by law, and received their commissions from the hands of the Chief

The ceremony lasted but a few minutes, and at its close the various members of the Cabinet were presented to the newly sworn in Judges, and after that ceremony had been gone through, Mr Sheriff Powell introduced the members of the bard After a general hand-snaking had been engaged in, the Judges withdrew, and they, with the Ministers, partook of a luncheon at the residence of the Premier.

THE BURLAND DESBARATS CO.

We see by the Montreal papers that this Company, based on the splendid ruins of the estate of Mr. G. E. Desbarats, and the prosperous business of Burland Lefricain & Co., has held its first annual meeting, and declared a dividend at the rate of 10 per cent. on the year's operations, besides carrying forward a considerable balance. This is very good, considering the year of commercial depression; and it is undoubtedly owing, first to the business energy and sagacity of the President and Manager, Mr. Burland, and second, the advantageous terms on which the new Company secured its plant. We are glad to notice the success of the success of mare business enterprise it is important, that there should be a large photo lithographic establishment in Canada in operation. The publications it issues, too, are of public interest. Thee are the Canadian illustrated News. improved, as well in the ability with is necessary for them. Publications of this kind, to succeed in a country with the limited population of Canada, must try known abroad, and we suall be gis to learn that its circulation is not confined to Canada. It possesses interest enough to make everybody look out for it and
