MUDDY STREETS.-The thaw of vester day caused the snow to almost wholly disappear, and as a consequence the streets have become very muddy and almost impassable.

WINTER PREPARATIONS .- The steps leading to the Government Buildings were yesterday covered with plank for the winter, a most necessary precaution to prevent accidents during frosty weather.

New Platform .- A new sidewalk has been laid down on the north side of St. Paul street, between Besserer and Cumberland streets. It has a rather abrupt terminus at the latter street, which if not immediately attended to may cause some serious accident.

Undergoing Repairs.—The necessary repairs are being effected on the platform on the south side of Rideau street. A annual report :number of broken planks have been of an essential character are being per formed along the several streets.

New City Hall .- The masonry on the 1 work before the very severe weather sets for a long time.

It will be remembered that Mr. Dowdal took an active part in the recent Convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union, of Ontario, of which he is one of the Vice-Presidents.

PAYING FOR HIS BACON .- Yesterday, in the market, Mr. A. Annable, of West Winchester, sold two hogs to a couple of men resident in Hull. Mr Annable took the carcase to the scales to be weighed and while he was thus engaged, a lady asked him to put a quarter of beef on the scales for her. While complying with her request, he left the hogs on the floor. One man had paid him, but the other took advantage of Mr. Annable being engaged and walked off with the second hog, leaving the vendor minus his money.
