Further Particulars of the Mutiny. London, Nov. 15 .- The Times Paris letter contains additional particulars of the mutiny on the ship Lennie, which shows that the bottle contaming the intelligence of the affair was thrown over board by Mr. Hoydonek, the steward. who, with a sailor and the cabin boy, endeavoured to defend the officers at the risk of their lives.

High Tide. The tide in the Thames this morning was the highest on record. Greenwich and the lowlands along the river were partially inundated. The weather around the coast continues very heavy. Vessels Wrecked-Lives Lost.

Wrecks have been numerous. Lloyd to-day publishes reports of wrecks that occurred last night off Breddington Cardigan, Clovelly, Berwick, Sunderland Bute and elsewhere. The British ship Astrida, Captain Me Gregor, which sailed from this port for the United States, had been lost off

Paris, Nov. 15 .- In the Assembly

day, the debate was upon the motion of M. Delacour for the postponement of the consideration of the municipal law till after the general elections. M. Duprat and other Republicans opposed the post-ponement, and charged the Government with designing to influence the elections through the mayors, who, under the existing laws, are appointed by the Gov indebted for their devoted services. The utterances, the Left, regarding the speech as a defence of the system of official candidates, were greatly irritated. The postponement was then voted by a large majority, and the result is considered important and very antagonistic to the Republicans, as the present Conservative irresponsible mayors will manage the Investigation of the "Waco" Bisaster An investigation was held to day by the Local Board of Steamboat Inspectors, to ascertain if the steamer City of Waco, which was burned off Galveston Bar, had on board any kerosene or petroleum oil. The evidence of Richard J. Holmes, a stevedore, who stowed the cargo, showed that three hundred cans of refined petroleum, was stowed upon the upper deck of the steamer, part aft and part forward; that it was distant 100 feet from any fire, and that no other freight of an inflammable nature was on board.

last night by Patrick Coyle and John Douglas, that a young man named Frank McHugh had been dangerously shot in a house on St. Mary street, nearly opposite the Longueuil Ferry. It appears that about 9 o'clock the parties who made the report, in company with McHugh and several others, went to this house, which is said to be a house of bad repute, and demanded admittance; one of the women of the house came to the door, and on seeing the number of the parties did not wish to let them in, whereupon they forced themselves into the house; the inmates tried to eject them, and a souffle ensued. Calcot, the boss of the house, immediately ran into an adjoining room when the gun went off, the charge entering the abdomen of Frank McHugh, who resides at No. 30 Gain street. As soon as the report came to the station, Serge nt Bouchard, with a posse of police went to the scene, and seeing the house, came t the conclusion, that as the house, which was barred in all directions, was so large having so many doors and windows, it was once put a guard at front and back of the premises, and sent for help, to the Central Station, when detective Arcand and Sergeant Dekonning with a posse of police were soon on the spot after which an entrance was effected by front and rear at dead ten hours.
