Local Intelligence. Disagreeable... Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days of the present season...

LA LAMP NOT LIT... The lamp opposite the corner of the Merchants' Bank was not lighted last night...

SNOW SLIDES... A slide of snow from the roof of Meane's clothing store, on Sparks street, yesterday, nearly caused a stampede among some passing teams.

WEATHER AND WORK... The wet weather of yesterday had the effect of stopping the building operations at the new City Hall and various other structures now in course of erection.

GAME LAWS... The deer season closes at the end of the month, and this year all who infringe the law by killing the animals after that date, will, if detected, be visited with the usual penalties.

ST. PATRICK'S BAZAAR... Last night saw the close of the St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum Bazaar, which, considering the hard times, has been a most successful one.

THE CANAL... So soon as the water is let out of the canal the work of constructing the building operations at the new City Hall will be commenced.

WANTED A LAMP... The residents of Albert street, between O'Connor and Bank would feel obliged to the Fire and Light Committee if they would place a lamp in that neighborhood.

ARCHITECTURAL AND ARTS ASSOCIATION... Mr. A. McNabb, M.P., Mr. J. Morgan and Mr. Andrew Wilson (Brockville), leave for Toronto on Monday to attend a meeting of the Council of the Architectural and Arts Association on Tuesday next.

KNOX OUTRAGE... There was a meeting of the young men of the St. John's Church held in the basement last night, to organize a "Young Men's Association" in connection with the congregation.

THE LATE PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION... At a meeting of the Finance Committee of the Provincial Exhibition, held the night before last in their rooms, Elgin street, a statement of the financial condition of the exhibition was presented.

STATEMENT CONTRADICTED... Last week this journal, in common with others of the city, gave a short obituary notice of one Dr. Hamilton Adams, late of this city, and a preceding article in the Standard, Michigan. It set forth that he came by his death through taking an overdose of chloral.

MEASURES OF ERLETT... Measures of Erlelt, auctioneers, have secured that large and commodious store recently occupied by Mr. W. F. Russell, in the Block, between the street, and they are selling at a great sacrifice.

THE HEATING STORE... The heating store that drives all competitors to the wall is the Gurney Base Burner. Buy it. Emerson Bros.

INSPECTION OF BUTTER.

A meeting of the examiners appointed at a recent meeting of the Ottawa Board of Trade, was held in the Victoria Chambers yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. MORRIS was first called, and was critically examined by the chairman, Mr. Patterson and Mr. Bates. The candidate displayed considerable acquaintance with the duties that would devolve upon an inspector of butter.

Mr. HAYES was the next examined, and he was also critically examined by the chairman, Mr. Patterson and Mr. Bates. The candidate displayed considerable acquaintance with the duties that would devolve upon an inspector of butter.

Mr. PATRICK KENNEDY was the last person examined. Considerable acquaintance with the duties that would devolve upon an inspector of butter was shown by the candidate.

These names will be submitted to the Government, from amongst whom the proposed Inspector of butter will be chosen. The proceedings were brought to a close about 6 o'clock p.m.

POLICE COURT. Before M. O'GARRA, P.M. FRIDAY, NOV. 26. James McCallum was charged with vagrancy; he was allowed to go on promising to favour some other place with his services.

Timothy Hanrahan and Michael Cronin were charged with attempting, by violence, to rob Michael O'Rourke. The first prisoner was discharged, as there did not appear to be any evidence connecting him with the offence.

ROCHESTERVILLE LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT... The first of a series of literary entertainments, partaking in a great measure the nature of social gatherings, was held in the village of Rochester on Thursday evening, in the lodge of the Sons of Temperance, under whose auspices they are to be continued during the winter.

OSWENDRE'S SHAVING AND HAIRDRESSING saloon, No. 3 Raitt's Block, Wellington street, Adèle M. Oswald, proprietor.
