HOW HONOURS ARE CONFERRED

No doubt many people, both here and elsewhere, have been curious to know upon what principle this, that, and the other politician had been made the recip ient of soyal honours, and was authorized to attach the magic initials, K. C. B., or the still more honourable "Bart." to the. designation inherited from his fathers. It is not every one knows how these matters are managed. Accident, not eminence, is often the motive power. One man has an address to carry to the foot of the throne, which could as well have been sent through the post, and hey, prescandle-maker of Cheapside, who chanced to commence his Lord Mayoral career on the auspicious 9th of November, the birth day of the Prince of Wales, gets "Bart." appended to his cognomen by a fluke, Men are, unfortunately, not always decorated or be knighted on account of their nerit. Jones may be a much abler man than Tompkins, but Tompkins has political influence in Mudborough, and gets his reward. Thus at Brantford, Guelph, Brockville, Kingston, London, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Sandwich and Woodstock, all of them having more populous gaols, the SUN MUTUAL ACCIDENT INSURANCE gaoler's salary is much less (and in the case of Sandwich only one-half as much) OTTAWA RIVER NAVIGATION COMP'NY than that paid the gaoler at Barrie. Similar disproportion exists in other cases, and markedly so in the case of the gaol surgeons, as we find $1,000 baid in with a population of prisoners; $250 in Hamwith a population of 956 prisoners, and $100 in Ottawa, with a population of 777 prisoners. These incongruities clearly prove that no uniform or equitable system enters into the allotment of salaries to gaol officials, and point to the conclusion that Government should take some means to insure a fairer distribution of salary, in some measure roportionate to the work that each official has to perform, and that it would be better to undertake the payment of and assume the entire control of, the salaries of gaol officials, than to allow caprice or parsimony to decide as to their rates of payment. In most cases the duties of gaol officials are performed well and faithfully, and yet, from reasons apart CHAS.
