On Saturday morning we gave a full report of the Premier's speech at Beachburg, on the subject of the whole proceedings, which was then in type.

Dr. TUPPER, on rising, was well received, being loudly cheered by the friends of Mr. White.

He expressed the pleasure it gave him to be present, and said that he was glad to see the Government of this country with a good Liberal Conservative Government.

He explained that, desirable as was the action of Mr. White, it was not a personal ground, his return was still more important on party grounds.

He said that the record of the Liberal Conservative Government was not so good as that of the Conservative Government.
