THE QUEBEC MINISTRY. It has often been asserted, since Mr DeBoucherville was called upon to form a Government for the Province of Quebec, that he and his colleagues were but keeping warm the Treesury benches for the heroes of the Tanneries Land Swap. While the elections were pen ling, and there was a prospect that such an assertion, if received with credence, would have its legitimate effect upon the minds of the mass of the people, the Conservative press stoutly denied that their new leader was capable of being a party to any such unworthy game. The no exception can be reasonably taken Gulliver's Travels, Elizabeth, English Statistics contained in the Blue-book of 1868 estimated the pro duction in Canada at 36,365,000 bushels, or 20,000,000 more than was shown by our census of 1871. These facts proved that there was not a proper system of taking statistics at the present time. stance in which this happened. "The wheat crops of Lower Canada," he says, as returned in the census of 1831, amounted to 3,407,756 minots (the minot, it must be remembered, is about an eleventh more than a bushel), whilst thirty years after (when everything else had more than doubled) the census of 1861 returned only 2,654,354 bushels."
