The Winslow Sensation - The Daily News and Boston Post-The Northampton Bank Robbery and its Les-Vaults-Bowen vs. Beecher, etc. From Cur Own Correspondent.

Boston, Peb. 7, 1875. Since last writing you, the city has been thrown into a state of unusual excitement over the villanies perpetrated by the ci-devant Rev. E. D. Winslow, and which has come to light since he fled the country. The particulars of his criminal career have, of course, reached you by telegraph long prior to this date, so that a review of the whole case would be superluous on my part, but I may be permitted to relate some of the latest disclosures regarding the matter, which you will not e likely to receive by wire.

A meeting of the parties most interested in the publication of the Daily News, which was under Winslow's management at the time he left, was held last week, and after hearing a statement of the affairs of the company, resolved to suspend the paper's appearance, as it has all along been a losing concern, and in the on money invested. Its principal rival, the Boston Herald, a live morning and other paper with which Winslow recently again the rule. became so recently connected, is the leading Democratic paper in New Eng. Boston avowedly holding Democratic poli tical principles. Apart from its political predilections, the Post is undoubtedly a good paper, as Boston papers go, and it is generally regretted that a man like Wins low should ever have been able even to

THE BELFRY MURDER TRIALS The second trial of Thomas W. Piper for the murder of Mabel H. Young, in the tower of the Warren Avenue Baptist son - Equitable Building Deposis Church, in May, 1875, commenced on Monday last and continued during the week. The government evidence adduced so far does not tend to make his conviction any more certain than in the last trial. The only new-evidence of importance being from a lady living in the vicinity of the church, which confirms who swears he saw Piper from the tower window. Mr. Brown, the junior counsel for the defence, promises to upset this evidence completely. A great deal of interest is manifested in the trial, and I should say the majority believe Piper guilty.
