THE CHORAL UNION CONCERT.

The inaugural concert of the second season of the Ottawa Choral Union was given last evening.

Considerable sympathy was shown by the members at the opening of the season, and it was not until it had advanced that the programme indicated.

The concert of last evening was the strongest yet given by the Society, and so much in regard to the solo as the increased number of instrumentalists.

The programme indicated that the concert would be a most successful one.

The concert was given in the presence of a large and appreciative audience.

The performance was of a high order of excellence.
