COUNTY OF CARLETON COUNCIL Adjourned Meeting.

The meeting of the County of Carleton adjourned from January last, was held gesterday afternoon in the Court House. There being present Mr. R. Cummings, Warden; and following mem bers of the Council: Messrs Smith Anderson, Thompson, Clarke, Beatty, Baker, M. P. P.; Stewart, Baskerville, Robillard, Davidson, Green, Neil, Dean, Armstrong, Sykes, Hill, Cleland, Henderson, Craig; the only member of the Board not being in his seat being Mr. Manion of Huntly.

The Clerk opened the proceedings by reading the minutes of the last meeting, and they received confirmation. The Warden then said before the regu-lar business was entered into, he would make a few remarks as to what was likely to come before them this session. He was glad to be in a position to state that since they last met, all matters in the ous manner. He referred to the fact that gratulation. He alluded to the importance of having two Audit Boards established. one by the County and the other by the Government, for the auditing of the Criminal Justice account. He felt confident that if such a system was adopted, it would be of infinite service. Members of the Council and the general public would then have at all times access to the financial statements and the books relating to that account. With regard to the assessment, the Warden said he had been in communication with Mr. Monk, M.P.P., relative to the extension of the assessment time from the 1st February until the 1st July, and he was glad to anin the Local Legislature, had lost no in attending the matter, which had been settled by a bill in a manner satisfactory to the ratepayers of Carleton. He then ful consideration of the report of the school Board, the latter being one of most material interest to the well-being of the residents of the County. He referred to the subjects which would be submitted by the Special Committee on Bridges, and urged them to use their most judicious
