DEAR SIR, - Can you inform the publi particularly the temperance portion of it, how it is that the License Commi have granted licenses to those tavern keepers who, by their violation of law, were rendered ineligible to receive them? It is a fact that such licenses have been issued to those persons, under assume names, in order to deceive the public, and they are carrying on business as usual. This is in direct violation of section 13 of the Act, which enacts that no license shall issue to any other than the real occupant of the premises licensed, and that John Cowle and John Redmond, both only after such is certified to by the inspector. Is it not disgraceful that efficials whose duty it is to enforce the law, should thus disregard it? and how can tavern Now is your time to buy cheap hard- keepers be expected to respect it when on Saturday, 27th inst, at A.
