Local Intelligence. Bar and most improved mowers in the market on good terms from Abbott & McDonald.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The German entertainment takes place on Friday evening in the Marble Hall, Rideau street. Tickets 25 cents.

A MARRIAGE.—A newspaper man made an ass of himself in a saloon yesterday afternoon. The animal bellowed hysterical wails, which cannot be said of the ass referred to.

THE OVEN AIR CONCERT.—The rain last evening threw a damper upon the spirits of many an "anxious one" who had previously arranged to go to the Bank concert. Such is life!

THE STADIUM.—It is said that the losses of the Stadium Fire Insurance Company, at the recent Quebec fire have been nearly paid off. This speaks well for young a company.

NEW GOODS.—Thompson & McArthur have received a large consignment of English preserved meats, wines and groceries, which were opened out last night. Commodities can now be well supplied.

CLUBS AGAIN.—The "Derby" lately the "Clubs" House, has again come to grief yesterday morning the boarders received notice "to quit" and the bar is now in the hands of an amateur bar-tender.

THE PARLIAMENT GARDENS.—It appears orders have been issued to the Dominion Police to prohibit any persons from entering the gates while the Guard's Band is performing. Passes will be issued to civil servants having occasion to visit their offices after hours.

HOUSE RAKES, self-dumping, and with all known improvements, very cheap at Abbott & McDonald's. 124 1/2

GOODS RECEIVED.—County Constable Gordon has returned from the City Village yesterday, having received about $2,000 worth of goods, said to have been commandeered by Messrs. Mooney Brothers, in connection with the case of the late Judge Ross on Saturday.

BALLET ABANDONED.—Ballif Hamilton, while making a scamper upon roads belonging to one Holland, of Hull, was assailed by Mr. and Mrs. Holland, who struck stones at him, and pulled his watch chain. The pair fought before the Police Magistrate, who gave them the privilege of paying $3 and $2 and costs respectively.

A DEPARTED SPOUSE.—She did not like him when he came home. There was not a single vestige of the glowy luxuriance of his hair, and he had been so often gazed with fond delight. The ring had been so thoroughly done that there was not even the shadow of stubble. He had been in the States, opposite the Parliament building.

REMEMBRANCE.—For making Short Fronts white only 25 cents at Abbott's.

TEA SPRAWL.—Some local sports would a sporting party yesterday, but their pleasurable expedition was put to a stop in a manner which terminated in a very satisfactory manner for the Dominion Police, but not for "the sports." Result: they had their spurs and other paraphernalia confiscated, and no doubt the hosts will last for a lifetime.

RACE.—Dominion Day promises to be well provided for in the way of races. A number of city sports had a meeting last evening in the Russell House, when an arrangement was made to have a meeting of the Dominion course. The programme will be very attractive, and will contain the names of many horses well known among the racing fraternity as first class.

GREEN CORNER.—On Friday evening a musical and literary Green Corner entertainment takes place in the Marble Hall, Rideau street. An splendid programme. Tickets only 25 cents.

THE FORT.—The annual excursion of the St. Vincent de Paul Society to Opeleguon, on the fourth of July, promises to be one of the most successful ever attempted by this Society. Arrangements have been made to bring a large number of passengers from the city by the St. J. & O. R.R., and our friends across the border have arranged an unusually brilliant programme for the occasion.

DOMESTIC SPICES.—Now that the season has opened, those who can spare a few hours relaxation from business are looking out for the most convenient, healthy and pleasurable place to go to. The Dominion Springs afford all the enjoyment one can expect at a watering place. Leaving out of the question the benefit to be derived from taking the medicinal waters of the Springs, the fact that one can enjoy a drive and a picnic and at the same time secure the most favorable and beneficial place to go to.

AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY.—Perhaps the most complete choice in Central Canada may be seen at Abbott & McDonald's. Farmers coming into the city should call.

WINDY WEATHER.—Yesterday about a horse belonging to Mr. Ayles, of Aylmer, ran away on Rideau street, and did all before him, and coming at a furious gallop over Duffins bridge struck the horse of the driver of the East-End Express, and fell against the back of Patrick Buckley's carriage, smashing both the back wheels to pieces. The upper part of the carriage was also broken, and the horse was thrown by the collision on the side on to the sidewalk, and the horse being continued his mad career up Wellington street, and was knocked down a child and could not be signalled until the horse allowed himself to be caught. The injury sustained by Mr. Buckley is very serious.

LADIES.—It will save you endless trouble by getting a box of Macintosh's 25-cent soap, a box of Macintosh's 25-cent soap, a box of Macintosh's 25-cent soap.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. COURT OF CHANCERY. Second Day. Before Vice-Chancellor PROCTOR.

Lyons vs Sparks.—Deere declares conveyance to wife valid; and inquiring as to improvements made by def. Mr. M. Lyons and Mr. O'Gara for plaintiffs, and Hon. John O'Connor, Q. C. for def.

Donnelly vs Masse and Letellier and Donnelly vs Masse and Fraser. The same points were involved in both these cases, by consent they will be tried together. The pleadings took over an hour in reading, and 7 o'clock p.m. the Court rose. Witnesses will be called at 9:30 sharp this morning.

At the opening of the Court in the morning, Messrs. Russell & Ross, counsel for the defendants in the case of Donnelly vs Masse and Fraser, asked leave of the Court to move for an order to commit C. H. McInnes, the publisher of the Ottawa Citizen, for contempt of Court, for publishing a letter in the daily Citizen of evening previous, purporting to be a synopsis of the trial of the case.

The board was never executed by the defendant, in consequence of plaintiff being subsequently refused the contract; but certain costs and charges were incurred by the defendant in connection with making good plaintiff's title to the lands conveyed. Defendant submitted to recovery of payment of these costs, and also for loss of his time, &c., in connection with the suretyship. Plaintiff refused to pay, and hence the suit.

Devin vs Crain.—In this case the bill was returned to compel recognition of a party conveyed to the defendant, in indemnity defendant from loss to be incurred by him as surety for the defendant in a railway contract.

The board was never executed by the defendant, in consequence of plaintiff being subsequently refused the contract; but certain costs and charges were incurred by the defendant in connection with making good plaintiff's title to the lands conveyed.
