CORRESPONDENCE.

The Editor desires it to be distinctly understood that, while inserting the communications of Correspondents, he is in no way to be held responsible for the opinions expressed therein.

To the Editor of THE TIMES.

SIR,—I find the following item in the Carleton Place Herald of the 16th inst:
ROWING.—Almonte people are becoming quite sportive. Foot races, boat races, and quoit matches are all the rage. On Saturday last a rowing match was advertised to come off between two champions, causing quite an excitement. On the 25th inst. a grand quoiting tournament is to come off, open to the Dominion. As the champion quoit thrower lives in Almonte, no doubt a large crowd will be attracted there.
The writer of the above paragraph has been misinformed, as the champion quoit thrower mentioned therein has been defeated six times out of eight at public matches, as the following record shows:—

Fatal Boiler Explosion at Sea.

The Pacific Mail steamship Colon, which sailed from here Aug. 20th for Aspinwall, returned to-day in a disabled condition. After being two days out a terrific explosion took place. There was a great rush of steam, which completely enveloped the vessel and caused a tremendous excitement among the passengers. After some time it was discovered that one of the boilers had burst, and that only two men had been killed—the chief engineer and one of the firemen. Several passengers were burned by the explosion. The vessel hoisted signals of distress, which were observed by the steamboat Etna, which immediately steamed to the disabled vessel and towed her back to the city.

Further Particulars.

On the 20th inst., after the crank pin broke, disabling both engines, the breaking of the pin ruptured the steam pipe, and the steam escaped at a pressure of fifty-eight pounds to the square inch, and surrounded John Bunting, assistant engineer, and James Farrell, whose death must have been instantaneous. The cause of the accident was a flaw in the forging of the crank. The passengers will be forwarded to Aspinwall by the next outgoing steamship of the line.

The Beecher Business.

NOTICE FOR A CHANGE OF VENUE.

An Impartial Jury Not to be Found.
Midnight Despatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Council of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in the suit against their client for alleged malfeasance in office, brought by Francis D. Moulton, have reserved on the latters counsel motion of an application to the Supreme Court for a change of venue, on the ground that the selection of an impartial jury in Kings County is impossible, and will be the cause of great divisions in public opinion among those from whom a jury would have to be selected. The notice was served on counsel that the application will be argued on the appeal term of the Supreme Court, on the first Monday in September. Accompanying notice and to sustain it are affidavits from citizens of Brooklyn, who are in no wise related to the parties or the issue, and who swear that in their judgment a fair trial here is impracticable. Mr. Beecher's affidavit to the same effect is also a part of the moving papers. Franklin County is suggested as a suitable trial place; this county is between Clinton and St. Lawrence Counties, in the extreme north east corner of New York State; it is certainly remote from any of the special causes which render the scandal alike a here and a commonplace to Kings County.

CATCHUP IN THE AIR.

On Friday evening a young gentleman whose great misfortune it is to be fond of his beer, went into a Lower Town restaurant and called for some whiskey, for which he paid five cents. He then went into one of the stalls and laid his head on one of the tables and fell asleep, where he was discovered by the proprietor and requested to go home. Instead of taking this good advice, however, he returned to the bar where he loitered around for some time, and eventually, when he found the bar tender's attention occupied, he stealthily went inside the bar and took a large bottle of brandy from the lower shelf, and hiding behind the end of the counter, he pushed the bottle under his coat, and issued forth again, looking nervously around to see if he had been discovered. At the entrance door of the restaurant stood a Frenchman, who was holding a conversation with the bar-tender across the bar while the theft was being committed, and on watching the young man trying to hide something under his coat, although he did not see him place the bottle there. As soon, therefore, as he had made his exit, the bar tender was informed of the matter, and in a minute he was in the street in hot pursuit. He had not far to go, however, as he captured his man a little distance from the restaurant, and seizing him by the shoulder, escorted him back, when the bottle was discovered under his coat. On being questioned he owned up to having taken the brandy, and became quite subdued and dejected in his manner. The proprietor not wishing to prosecute him, knowing that he belonged to respectable family in the city, let him go at the same time showing him the person outside he had placed himself in should he be called to account. The sinner did not thank him a bit, but walked off with a defiant sneer on his countenance.

THE TURCO-SERVIAN WAR.

Servian Victories Confirmed.

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

Preliminary Negotiations for Peace.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—A despatch from Constantinople says preliminary negotiations for peace were opened last night between the foreign Ambassadors in consequence of the step taken by Prince Milan.

VIENNA, Aug. 26.—It is asserted here that at the preliminary peace negotiations between the Signatories of the Treaty of Paris, it was proposed as a basis that Prince Milan should be retained on the throne, that Servia should pay a war indemnity and that Turkey should have the right of placing a garrison in a Servian fortress on the Turkish frontier.
Midnight Despatches.

RAGUSA, Aug. 26.—A battle is imminent near Podgonitza. Dervish Pasha has taken the command of the troops in Albania. It is stated that the Mareditz, a powerful tribe of Roman Catholic Albanians, will remain neutral.

VIENNA, Aug. 26.—The Political Correspondence reports that the chances of the Sultan's recovery diminish daily. The Ministers are seriously considering the question of an approaching change in the succession. The eventual successor, Habdul Hamel, has put himself indirectly in communication with the Powers, notably Austria, for the purpose of preparing the way for a general understanding on the pending questions. All the Powers have favourably received this step.
Midnight Despatches.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Standard's Belgrade despatch says while Prince Milan is showing his good sense in trying to regulate the peace, Russian officers continue to arrive in great numbers; and General Tchernayeff, by repeated attacks upon the Turkish lines, is doing his best to make the negotiations abortive. He has hurried so far that the Porte, in reply to the tender of mediation by the powers, plainly declined to listen to the proposal, till Alexinatz is surrendered. Consequently fighting there continues.
The Standard's correspondent telegraphs the Servian authorities report great victories, but without foundation. The Servians may have driven back the Turkish columns which advanced from Fort St. Stephen, and falling off the level ground, were obliged to retreat, but the Turks are on the right and left bank of the Morava level with Alexanitz. There is a possibility of the occupation of the Servian frontier, and of Belgrade itself, by an Austrian corps of five thousand men. The Austrians on the Save and Danube are ready to march at a moments notice.
A special from Belgrade reports that discontent among the people, on account of the negotiations, daily becoming more intense. Among other demands of foreign representatives the cessation of hostilities is refused by the Ministry.
A despatch from Vienna asserts that the Porte requires Prince Milan shall address his demands for peace directly to the Turkish Government.
The Standard's Berlin special announces that at the Council of the Servian Cabinet, Prince Milan's resolution in favour of mediation was approved three to one.
LONDON, Aug. 28.—Previous reports of a Servian victory on Thursday last are confirmed by latest despatches.
The Times Belgrade special says Tchernayeff and Horvatovich drove the Turks out of Brugo Vass and Stanco, and then joined their forces, which increased the army of the Morava to 10,000 men. Notwithstanding, Kerim Pasha on the whole has made a clever advance, being on three sides of Alexinatz, which is decidedly in danger.
A despatch to the Daily News states that fighting was renewed Sunday morning.
A despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Parachin reports that on Tuesday two columns of Servian troops at Alexinatz mistook each other for enemies and a serious fight took place before the error was discovered. Some Bulgarian volunteers have shot their commander who ordered them to advance. The wounded man refused to have an operation performed, as do nine out of ten natives, although they know that death will follow in consequence of their refusal.
A Berlin despatch to the Post announces that the Powers have agreed to request the Porte to accede to the suspension of hostilities: Turkey is resolved to grant only a short armistice for the purpose of accelerating the terms of peace.

THE SIOUX WAR.

Crook and Terry Have Struck the Big Trail.

THE RED BROTHER GOING SOUTH.

The Campaign a Failure.
Afternoon Despatch.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—A special to the Times from the Yellowstone expedition on the steamer Josephine, dated from near the mouth of the Yellowstone, Aug. 20th, says: Since the junction of Gen. Crook and Terry, it is hoped they will overtake and force a fight with the Sioux. The command moved west to Big Horn mountains, where on the 14th inst., a trail four or five days old and two miles wide, being the heaviest ever seen on the prairies, was discovered. This trail finally separated, and the Indians were found to be in full retreat, one band heading north towards Little Missouri, with the probable intention of crossing the line, and the other going south along the Little Missouri river about Fort Berthold. There is every indication of the hostiles being heartily reinforced by the Sioux Indians. They have their families and evidently intend remaining north this winter. The army has a different programme, and it will be almost miraculous if our troops overtake the savages, who are well mounted. Gen. Miles, commanding the
