LAST CHANCE. These dresses of buying factory remarkably cheap, ought to attract notice, as it does to-morrow night.

AMUSEMENT. George Malmey and Michael Coyne will appear this morning before the police magistrate to answer to the charge of assault.

Now is the time to buy best 1 inch 3-ply Rubber Hose, warranted, at half the usual price, at Theo. Frederick's, 116 and 115 Nelson Street.

HOWARD'S CHERRY BOWS AT LAST.—Now is the time to purchase bows and shoes at your own figures, at H. McDougall's temporary premises, Queen's Block, corner Sussex and Rideau streets.

THE GLAZIER THE AND OFFICE WAREHOUSE, No. 204 Sparks street, will open to-day.

THE DAILY TRINER, delivered every morning at 25 cents per week, in all parts of the city, suburbs and West.

For immediate disposal, $4,000 worth of Boots and Shoes, at Lyons', 264 Wellington Street.

PRESENTLY HOSPITAL.—Visitors this week: Directors Messrs. H. J. Shaw and E. K. Taylor, Clergy Messrs. W. Howe and F. Cook, Ladies' Committee, Messrs. James W. Young and N. Link, Physicians, Dr. D. McGillivray.

HEAT OF FEVER.—It is said that the heat of fever on George Street are at least to be utilized, by residents to build their nests in, and rabbits and combs to burrow in. A few of the houses, here already taken possession and others are about removing them.

CONNECTION.—In our report of the Post Office robbery published in Friday's issue, it was stated that Gough had been employed in some capacity in the Union Bank. When this, the manager has distinctly denied that such was the case, and we therefore take the opportunity of making the correction.

TELL.—Nicer complaints are being made by the people living along the line of the fourth Street Road. The company is religiously strict in collecting cesspits, but they are not so strict in the road to the depot. Several gentlemen are anxious for a new hole to run parallel to the old one, and in fact parts of it are already constructed.

MARKET.—There was a large market on Saturday. Immense quantities of fruit and vegetables were for sale, as well as eggs and butter. Eggs sold at 12c per dozen, and butter 25c to 30c per pound. Grain was rather scarce, though in good demand. Oats fetched 24c to 26c a bushel, and hay from 9c to 11c per ton.

DEATH.—A man of the name of Tobin, a Corporation employee, was found dead in his bed on Saturday morning on Robinson Street. Deceased had been drinking very hard of late, and had been charged with drunkenness at the Police Court on Friday, but was discharged as it was his last illness. He went to his bed on the same night apparently in his usual health. Strange to say there was no inquest on the body.

SPORTING NEWS. Newburg Regatta. News, Aug. 25.—The Newburg Bay regatta, which was witnessed by immense crowds, there were five races in all; the principal were a single scull race, open to all Whitehall or working boats, and a long scull race, open to all distance three miles, first prize $50, second prize $15, and a double scull race, open to all visiting boats, not over 4000 lbs. long and weighing not less than 145 pounds; first prize $40; second prize $20.

THE FOLLOWING were the winners in the single scull race: Miss Ward of the famous Ward Brothers crew, Dr. Wilson and John McKel of Hamilton, White and McKel of Hamilton, and Ellis Ward and Dennis Gilman of Cornwall. There was also a very close contest between McKel's boat and the White and McKel boat, but the latter was defeated by one length in twenty-four minutes. The other races were won as follows: Double scull race: Dan and Gil-Ward of Cornwall; John McKel and Alfred McKel of Cornwall; N. J. Richard White and F. McKel of Hamilton; and Ellis Ward and Dennis Gilman of Cornwall. There was also a very close contest between McKel's boat and the White and McKel boat, but the latter was defeated by one length in twenty-four minutes. The other races were won as follows: Double scull race: Dan and Gil-Ward of Cornwall; John McKel and Alfred McKel of Cornwall; N. J. Richard White and F. McKel of Hamilton; and Ellis Ward and Dennis Gilman of Cornwall.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.—All the crews for the four-oared boat race now have their boats ready. The crews are: Northwestern crew, Dr. Wilson and McKel; John McKel and Alfred McKel; N. J. Richard White and F. McKel; and Ellis Ward and Dennis Gilman. The race was very close and exciting. McKel's boat won by three lengths in 27 minutes. The other races were won as follows: Double scull race: Dan and Gil-Ward of Cornwall; John McKel and Alfred McKel of Cornwall; N. J. Richard White and F. McKel of Hamilton; and Ellis Ward and Dennis Gilman of Cornwall.
