THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE. - A meeting of this Association was held on Wednesday, at which arrangements were made for the Week of Prayer, which will commence on the 8th inst. The other business before the meeting had reference to the exemption of church property from taxation; and, incidentally, to the dispute with the Rev. Mr. Cameron.

ASTRAY .- P. C. Vizard found a span of stray horses on Sussex street yesterday evening belonging to Mr. Benjamin Bickford, of Templeton, and was on the point of taking it to Champness' stables, when the owner put in an appearance and claimed them. While at the Police Court in Hull he left the horses outside and they went astray.

JUVENILE ACCIDENT. - We are sorry to be obliged to state that a child of Mr. T. Kane, of the Deep Cut, met with a severe accident last evening, by falling on a piece of broken crockery ware. The parents thought at first that the child's right eye was destroyed, but fortunately they were agreeably disappointed, for although the

A right good enjoyable evening was spent and full justice done to the viands provid ed by the popular President. The Association is making marked progress in their practices, and we hope to hear of their performing in public at no distant day.

BAPTIST CHURCH . - The annual meeting of the Ottawa Baptist Church was held in the Queen Street Church on Wednesday evening, and was very numerously attended. After the transaction of the usual routine business, the matter which had engaged the attention of the Evangelical Alliance was introduced.
