

POWASSAN: Senior Citizens' Week promises to be a busy one with activities planned for each day. As mentioned last week, Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday have events at the hall, while Wednesday there will be a picnic at Munro Park.

On Sunday the choir (24 members strong) assisted with the service at Chisholm United Church. On June 25 they will be in Powassan United. Early in July they have arranged to go to Restoule.

Summer arrived officially at 8:14 a.m. on Tuesday, but it seems as if it will be over before we realize it is here. Although recent rains have certainly given a lift to POWASSAN: Surprise! Surprise! No doubt many people were shocked, perhaps dismayed by the government changes in Quebec. However, it remains to be seen what the result will be.

The Bells of St. Mary's are ringing again! They were heard last Sunday morning prior to the 11 a.m. service, leadership of Rev. Robt. Jackson. Mr. Jackson had arranged his delightfully entertaining afternoon with a pleasant assortment of traditional, semi-classic and modern songs. He was accompanied on piano by Mrs. Fay Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were thanked by Mrs. Barbara Anderson.

On Wednesday evening a program of musical participation was led by the Baytones of North Bay at the Golden Sunshine Hall. This group of ladies who without musical accompaniment present a repertoire of varied songs. The group was formed about 12 years ago and is associated with an international group of Barbershop Singers. The North Bay group generally composed of 30 or so members is led by Mrs. Gill. In their white skirts, navy blazers and red ties, they present a most attractive picture as well as provide a very enjoyable evening. The group was welcomed by president Barbara Anderson and Mrs. Mabel Whittaker. Lunch and a social time concluded the evening.

A.C.W. members were busy making mincemeat last week for their tea and annual sale of Christmas goodies, to be held on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 2. Pakistan embroideries will be featured. These are made in Lahore by native women, trained by Christian missionaries. This self-help project was begun in 1948 by 4 garden growth, they may have been too late to help the hay crop. Farmers are already considering the options in this regard. Milk quotas must be met and without an adequate hay crop, it presents a real problem.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ellery (Linda Kerr) are home from Germany for a few weeks while Mr. Ellery is engaged in taking a course. Members of the Armed Forces spend a period of four years overseas.

The 500 party held in the Golden Sunshine Hall on Thursday night was well attended with ten tables of cards, and one of each euchre and crokinole. Prizes were won by Mr. Eddie and plans are for them to continue throughout the year. For some years we have missed their joyful call to worship.

Music was the order of the week in two local programs last week. On Tuesday afternoon Unit 1 of the U.C.W. had a complete musical program under the son Scott of Barrie; Mrs. Laver's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Earle Milne of Timmins; and her mother Mrs. Fred Watt of Longford.

A very successful bake sale, bazaar and afternoon tea were held at the United Church on Saturday afternoon. The tea room had been tastefully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Gomoll and Mrs. M. Butler. As usual the bake goods table was very popular and in a very short time was emptied. Tables featuring candles, candy, knitted goods etc. were also well patronized.

All of us, I'm sure, are very happy and relieved to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Young have finally found water to serve their new home on Hwy. 11S. Apparently their first drilling proved unsuccessful, as did their second. They decided to blast and were successful... Congratulations!

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Mabel Graff and Mrs. Helen Lake are home from hospital. Best wishes to both for continued return to health.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Terry Aelick and family of Manitoulin Island to our town. Mrs. Aelick was the former Judy McIntyre, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson of Spetz Street.

Swine flu clinic is being held in the town office on Thursday afternoon from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Young, Mr. A. Graff, Mrs. D. McKenzie, Mrs. H. Humphrey and Mrs. D. Anderson. Following the games, lunch and a social time were enjoyed.

Units one and two of the U.C.W. both held their meetings early in order not to conflict with events of Senior Citizens' Week. In each case the year's activities were culminated by picnic potluck luncheons, the former at Mr. Larry Froud's cottage on Lake Nipissing, and Unit two at the beautiful home of Mrs. Paul Parlee on Highway 11N. Both groups were reminded of the "Silent Auction" to be held in the church on July 16.

At the Unit one meeting Mrs. H. Paul presided and welcomed the members and guests. The roll call was answered by quoting a favourite Bible verse or hymn. Readings were given by Mrs. D. Anderson and Mrs. E. Millar. A report of the Manitou Presbyterian Conference held at South Porcupine was given by Mrs. L. Millar. Birthdays of members which occur this month or during the summer months were remembered. A vote of thanks was made to Mr. Froud for the use of his beautiful cottage.

At the Unit two meeting a very interesting talk and demonstration on flower arranging was given by Mrs. Etta Kerr, our local florist. The very attractive finished product graced the table for the evening's program. This included the worship by Mrs. Betty Piper and social activities under the leadership of Mrs. Shirley Barfoot.

On Monday morning the various schools of the area gathered at the Powassan Junior Public School to entertain the local pupils. The Restoule Juniors did a medley of tunes on their recorders, as did also the Nipissing pupils. The Restoule seniors contributed a number of songs by their choir. South Himsworth exhibited their skill with ukeleles and two Callander pupils entertained with their guitars. Other

Our sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bruce of Bonfield, in the recent death of their little 2-year-old son. Mrs. Bruce is the former Ruth Brownlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown-numbers included violin solos by Mr. H. Smith and Mrs. B. Piper and solos by Tom Joron and Kim Hudson.

The Lions' annual Fish Fry was held at Camp Tillicum on Wednesday evening. A good supply of fish and pleasant weather contributed to make this annual affair a happy occasion.

Mr. Elwood Moore's new building on Clark Street is fast nearing completion. Mr. Moore will be contributing to the local economy, articles which are in short supply locally. Another new business noticed is that of Mrs. Monica Gibbings, located in a bright new building on King Street North. She will represent Alois Real Estate in our area.

Graduation Day is an important event in anyone's life, but to none is it more important than it was to the graduates and under-grads of the Friendly Nursery School, when it took place in the school on Monday morning, June 20.

The program, which was attended by 50 or more interested parents and friends was in charge of the teachers, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. French, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. E. Paul, and their assistants.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Connie Barber with Mrs. Evelyn Paul, supplying an effective musical accompaniment, the little folk took an "imaginary walk" with women. Today there are 600x where they discovered the necessary help such as support and educate their policeman's hat, a gar- children. The promotion of ge bag, and the inevitable their work is done in Canada aid. Finally they dis- by the women of the vered the magic wand Anglican Church. Mrs. Locke hich converted the children of Haileybury will be in to kangaroos, mice and charge of this display of nally into nice little children handiwork. Also, for sale will ho in their theme song be books written and illustra- powered the philosophy of ted by Miss Muriel Newton- r school. We should learn White also of the Tri-town, take our turn, and to area.

Our sincere sympathy to the family of Mr. Carl Bell who passed away on Sunday after a long painful illness. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Orilla visited their family in Orilla on Sunday.

We are sorry to learn that more of our citizens are in hospital including Mrs. Dixie Hogan, Mr. Fred Gomoll, Mrs. H. Duncan and Mr. Jeff

We welcome Mrs. Linda Barton who recently took up residence on Spetz Street in town. Miss Carol Barton has gone to Cornwallis, N.S. where she will enter a course in Army Services.

Mrs. Myrtle Griffin, D.D. G.M. of Fenelon Falls was guest of the Algonquin Chapter No. 295 of the Eastern Star at the monthly meeting on Tuesday evening November 16. Present also was Miss Evelyn Bates of Bracebridge who was presented with an Honourary Membership. Other guests were present from Fenelon Falls, Bracebridge and Parry Sound.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laver last week included Mr. Paul Laver, daughter Cathy and assistance from the magic women. Today there are 600x where they discovered the necessary help such as support and educate their policeman's hat, a gar- children. The promotion of ge bag, and the inevitable their work is done in Canada aid. Finally they dis- by the women of the vered the magic wand Anglican Church. Mrs. Locke hich converted the children of Haileybury will be in to kangaroos, mice and charge of this display of nally into nice little children handiwork. Also, for sale will ho in their theme song be books written and illustra- powered the philosophy of ted by Miss Muriel Newton- r school. We should learn White also of the Tri-town, take our turn, and to area. o-operate, Clean up our ness, learn how to dress, and never to be late. We should not fight, it is not ight, we should say please and thank you. This is the way we all should play, I now that I can, can you?

Mrs. Jackson presented certificates to each pupil as he or she wore the mortarboard hat. Those returning to the school for another term include: Angela Young, Chris Ricker, Jenny Ricker, Maurie Hickey, Andy Straughan, Jay Moore, Kathy Fraser, Shannon Polesky, Kenny Parlee, Tanya Young, and Stuart Irwin.

Those who enter kindergarten at Powassan Public School include: Duane Jobbs, Joey Young, Amy 'eever, Trevor Polesky, Andrea Jackson, Todd Piper, Rosalyn St. Clair, Darcy 'rench, Trevor Bartraw, Christoph Wand, Mark Borschott, David Brisson.

As part of the 50th anniversary of the United Church in Powassan an artistic and colourful banner or wall hanging has been compiled by Mrs. N. Gomoll and Mrs. M. Butler. This beautiful work contains the names of the original members of the church and is currently hanging in the church sanctuary. The var-