

POWASSAN: Hunting season is with us again, and men and even some women get the fever and take off into the wilds for a brief time. I wonder how many of our sympathies are with the poor frightened wild creatures!

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Piper gathered at Sportsplex on Saturday evening to celebrate with them their silver wedding anniversary. The affair was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Piper's sons, Tim and Danny and daughter, Colleen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ronholm and family attended the wedding service of Mrs. Ronholm's sister in Morrisburg on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hines of Callander are the proud parents of a wee baby boy, 3 lb. 3 oz. born October 11 at Women's College Hospital in Toronto. Jeffrey Lawrence is a brother for Jason and Jody Lynne. Mother and babe are doing well.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sluman who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, October 8. Friends from the local area as well as from a distance gathered at Mr. and Mrs. Sluman's apartment to rejoice with them and to offer their best wishes. Vickie and Bob were married October 1, 1929 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson Anderson of Chisholm. Their attendants were Reta Sluman and David Anderson. Since their marriage they have lived at Dwight, Nipissing and at their present home on King Street in Powassan. Here from Dwight for the special occasion were Mr. and Mrs. William Sluman and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Asbury.

Players sufficient for seven tables of euchre were present at the Golden Sunshine Hall on Thursday night. Winners of prizes included Mrs. E. Thomson, Mrs. V. Smith, Joe Rich and Ernie Young, and for crokinole, Mrs. Elsie Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie of Scotland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Burnett.

Flower lovers were thrilled and excited on Thursday evening at the horticulture meeting at Mapleridge to see and learn what variety and beauty can be expected when proper soil and lighting are utilized to produce winter plants. Mr. Ray Halward of the Royal Botanical Gardens, Hamilton, demonstrated in a very practical fashion with his mobile unit what results can be expected with this type of propagation. Following the indoor demonstration the members were invited to visit the mobile unit where some 300 plants in pots, pans, bottles etc., were thriving due to proper soil, lighting and fertilization.

Mr. Halward was introduced to the group by President Margaret Butler and thanked by Mrs. Mildred McDonald. Accompanying Mr. Halward was Mrs. D. Hutton of Toronto. While in the area, they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. D. Woodward. Lunch and a social time concluded the meeting.

Mr. Richard Paul, who is teaching at Ajax was home for the holiday weekend.

Much satisfaction was expressed by the committee in charge at the success of the "rummage sale" held Saturday morning in the United Church. We are indebted to the Nipissing correspondent for her mention of the affair in her column.

Work has begun on the roof repairs of the United Church. We trust that this time there will be a complete correction of the problem.

Home for Thanksgiving at the Grant Porters' were Miss Nancy Porter, Mr. Joe Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Langstaff and baby Tommy, all of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith and family of Oshawa spent the long weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Vance Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Moore and Stephanie of Grimsby spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Moore.

Also home for the Thanksgiving holiday were David Brown from McMaster at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Victor Brown; and Glenn Beech at his parents' (Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beech) home.

Our sympathy to the family of Mr. Al Johnson whose mother Mrs. Alice Johnson passed away recently in York Manor, Newmarket. Funeral services were in charge of Rodehouse and Rose and interment was in the South River C.

(Cont'd 1

brief visit. Mr. McAnulty is stationed with the C.F.S. at Mill Cove, N.S., and had been attending his sister's wedding in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Young enjoyed a recent trip to Calgary, Banff and Lake Louise. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Keall, and attended the wedding of their nephew, Jimmy Keall to Judy Hittle. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Keall of Sudbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob O'Halloran of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Young.

Miss Pearl Graff of North Bay and Mrs. Audrey Plaunt of New Liskeard were weekend guests of Mrs. Emma Millar.

Quite a number from this area attended the Charlie Pride show in North Bay and report it "super".

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fosh were pleasantly surprised last week when son-in-law, daughter and grandchildren Mr. and Mrs. Neil McAnulty, Gregory and Erin Louise arrived for a

(Cont'd on Page 11)

Mrs. Mildred Paul, Mrs. Enid Paul, Mrs. Agnes Brownlee, Mrs. Eleanor Parlee and Mrs. D. Millar attended the workshop in Omond Memorial Church, North Bay on Friday. Especially enjoyed was the talk, illustrated by slides, by Mrs. Minai Hughes, recently returned from Kenya.

A most interesting ceremony was performed on Wednesday evening at Powassan Public School when Guide Commissioner Shirley Barfoot supervised the "flying up" of eligible Brownies into the Girl Guide troop. The new Guide members were welcomed by leaders Monica Mainville and Candice Burns. Included among those who were promoted were Monica Aultmen, Melanie Bartraw, Tracy Busch, Cynthia Fife, Nancy Hunt, Tammy Hargrave, Tina Jackson, Brenda Parlee, Kerry Storie, Cori Topham, Birgitt Wand, Lisa and Wendy White.

The Brownie leaders, Mrs. Val Goodin and Miss Karen Hargrave were present to bid farewell to their little "departees".

Following the flying up, Mrs. Barfoot gave out badges and awards to those members who had completed the necessary accomplishments.

We are pleased to learn that a Pathfinder group is presently being organized with Miss Donna Oshell and Mrs. Stephen Piekarski as leaders.

Word has been received that Mr. Peter Miedema, a teacher in this area during the 60's has suffered a stroke and is a patient in Bowmanville Hospital (47 Wellington St.) "m"