

Hurons lose two close ones

The Penetanguishene Hurons are coming close but not close enough in their effort to win a hockey game and break out of a long losing streak.

On Sunday the Hurons dropped their second game of the week by a narrow margin losing 5-3 to Huntsville. Huntsville's fifth goal was scored into an empty net with Penetanguishene's goalie sitting on the bench for an extra attacker.

Two days earlier the Hurons lost a 5-4 squeaker to Alliston.

Gary Hansford, Chris Lyons and Mark Duquette accounted for the Hurons three goals in Sunday's game at the Penetanguishene arena.

On Friday night Claude Archer, Chris Lyons, John Dupuis, and Gary Hansford popped in goals for the Hurons.

Captain Pierre Belcourt missed Sunday's game due to a wrist injury sustained at Alliston. Club manager Ken Gauthier said Belcourt is expected back in action this week.

Get your licences

Licence renewal stickers for passenger cars and trailers went on sale at the beginning of this month at 296 licence issuing offices around the Province.

The 1975 validation stickers are green for automobiles and black for trailers. Fees remain the same: $23 for 4-cylinder cars; $32 for 6-cylinders; and $40 for 8-cylinder vehicles. Trailer stickers are $5.

Motorists must also fill out a simplified renewal application and then present this along with their multi-year permit and fee to the licence issuer.

The validated permit will then be returned with a new sticker for the rear licence plate.

Deadline to have the new sticker on automobile licence plates is February 28, 1975; for trailer plates, March 31, 1975.

Mrs. Bechard is survived by her sons Raymond and Edward of Scarborough, Michael of Penetanguishene, daughters Theresa Macdonald of Wyevale, Rose Archer of Port McNicoll, Margaret Allen of Penetanguishene, sisters Delima Longlade and Lucille Lesaux of Penetanguishene and Rose Deschamps of Hespeler, brothers Peter and Theophile of Penetanguishene and Arthur of Victoria Harbour.

Mrs. Bechard was predeceased by her husband Archie on September 23, 1966. There are 26 grandchildren and two great grandchildren surviving.

Name released

Police last week released the identity of a Toronto man killed Dec. 28 in a three-car crash on Champlain Road, a mile north of Robert Street West in Penetanguishene.

He was identified as 24-year-old Carlos Plua of Finch Avenue in Toronto, a native of Ecuador. A spokesman said the dead man's original home was Montevideo.

In the collision, the dead man's car crossed the centre line of the road, striking two oncoming cars and sending three people to hospital.
