

Major atoms win two games

Minor hockey results

Juvenile Green 1 Blue 7
The boys were filled in the Juvenile hockey game between the Green and Blue. Sixty minutes and 18 goals later, the Blues emerged on top with an 11-7 triumph.

A hat trick by Ray DeVillers and two goal performances from Paul Marion and Dave Ross sparked Green to its victory. Singles went to Dave Parent, Ken Wiggins, Allen, and Rob Cascagnette. Wayne Beausoleil and Dave Parent picked up a pair of assists. Ray DeVillers also earned an assist to go along with his three goals giving him a four point game.

Mike Duval popped in four goals for the Blues in their losing effort. Bill Mundy scored a pair and Wayne St. Amant notched a single marker to account for the seven goals.

Assists went to John Sagle (two), Bill Mundy (two) and Wayne St. Amant.

Midget B

Sweden 5 Austria 4
Four goals by Peter Gignac proved to be the difference as Sweden edged Austria 5-4. Jammy Maddock scored the fifth and game winning goal for Sweden. Paul Straughan picked up an assist on Gignac's second goal.

Austria received a two goal performance from another Gignac, this one being Pat. Brad Marchildon also banged in a couple of goals. Assists went to Ron Lalonde and M. Lesperance.

Russia 1 Canada 3

It doesn't happen much in international hockey but in Penetanguishene Minor Hockey Canada thumped Russia 3-1.

John Pickett, Chris Robitaille, and Roger Dupuis sparked the Canucks with single goal efforts. Pickett also picked up an assist.

Jackie Dusome scored the lone goal for Russia.

Junior C

Tiger 5 Panthers 2
The Tigers ripped into the Panthers 5-2. Vincent Bruick led the Tigers clawing attack with four goals. Patrick Dion accounted for the other Tiger marker.

Neil Charlebois replied with a pair of goals for the panthers.

Junior B

Weston 3 Newmarket 3
David Trudeau's hat trick enabled Weston to tie Newmarket 3-3.

Newmarket's three goals came from two brothers. Arthur LeRoux scored a pair while brother Denis added a single. Assists went to Jamie Grozelle with two and Donald Twist.

St. Kitts 4 Barrie 3

Victor LeBlanc picked up a pair of goals and Greg Marchildon earned a couple of assists as St. Kitts edged Barrie by a single goal. David Genier and David Gravelle scored the other two goals for St. Kitts. Assists went to David Bellehumeur and Andrew Thompson.

Bobby Howard's two goals and Ian Wilson's single accounted for Barrie's scoring.

Philadelphia 2 Buffalo 3

Two goals by Shawn Sauve were not enough for Philadelphia as it dropped a 3-2 game to Buffalo. David MacConkey picked up an assist on Sauve's first goal.

Guy Pilon popped in a pair to go along with a single by Andre Beaudoin enabling Buffalo to edge Philadelphia by a single goal. Tom Moreau earned an assist on Andre Beaudoin's goal.

Pittsburgh 4 Vancouver 8

Three two goal performances highlighted Vancouver's 8-4 triumph over Pittsburgh. Alex Cameron, Martial Marion, and Allen McIntosh drilled home two goals apiece to go along with single by Tim Twitchin and Richard Pattenau.

Assists went to Jimmy Lamont, Tim Twitchin, and Martial Marion.

Jim Perrault scored a hat trick for Pittsburgh and Pierre Belcourt popped in a single goal to account for the losing team's four goals. Mike Bonnin earned an assist.

Peewee B

Oakland 4 Minnesota 0

John Jesseau earned the only shutout in last week's Penetanguishene minor hockey action. Four of Jesseau's teammates popped in single goals for Oakland's 4-0 victory. Brian Robitaille, Dave Desroches, Jerry Cascagnette, and John Legault accounted for Oakland's goals. Assists went to Brian Robitaille who set up a pair of goals.

Bantam B

Montreal 5 Boston 1

Two goals by Gilbert Quesnelle powered Montreal to a 5-1 victory over Boston. Keith Press, Kevin St. Amant and Martin Dorion scored the other Montreal markers. Assists went to Wayne Quesnelle, Glenn Cascagnette, and Donny Legault.

Armand Maurice scored

Boston's only goal when he flipped in a pass from Maurice Roy.

Chicago 2 Detroit 5

Mitchell Stewart popped in a pair of goals to pace Detroit to a 5-2 victory over Chicago. Singles went to Peter MacDonald, Pierre Therrien, Marc Bellehumeur. Mark Bellehumeur also earned an assist. Other assists went to Pierre Therrien and Ken Asselin.

New York 2 Toronto 4

Toronto doubled the score on New York 4-2 on the strength of two goals by Terry Schell and singles by Mark Stevens and Danny Cote.

Richard Lalonde and John Lefave picked up New York's goals. Bradley Pike earned an assist on Lefave's marker.

All-Star Hockey

Major Atoms 3 Collingwood 1

Single goals by Peter Roi, Ken Lacroix and Frank Dupuis powered the Penetanguishene Major Atoms to a 3-1 win over Collingwood. Gary Potts scored Collingwood's only goal.

Major Atoms 6 Owen Sound 2

In a second game the Penetanguishene Atoms came out on top again downing Owen Sound 6-2. The brothers Robillard: David and Paul, paced Penetanguishene's scorers with two markers. Singles went to David Lefave, Ken Lacroix, Frank Dupuis and Peter Roi.

Owen Sound's two goals came off the sticks of Rick Earls and David Locking.

Eyes on the ball

All eyes are on the volleyball in Thursday's three school tournament at Penetanguishene Secondary School. Here, a PSS player is a study in concentration as she returns a shot. The PSS girls did well in the tournament. For details see Pat Fitzgerald's writeup.

PSS girls win four matches

Elmvalle and St. Theresa's, and Penetanguishene Secondary School girls junior and senior volleyball teams took part in the opening tournament games of this season Thursday at PSS.

In the Junior matches PSS defeated St. Theresa's of Midland 15-3, and 15-0. PSS then went on to defeat Elmvalle 15-10, lost their second match 15-7, and put Elmvalle out of the running by defeating them 15-11 in the final game.

The PSS Seniors were unlucky. They lost all but one game. Elmvalle defeated PSS 15-8 and 16-14. St. Theresa's downed PSS 15-12. In the second game PSS won 15-12. The final game was
