IN MEMORIAMs

In loving memory of a dear husband, father, and grandfather, Fred Carpenter, who passed away Jan. 17th, 1970. Five lonely Christmases have passed. No Merry Christmas, No Happy New Year. Since God called you home Your portrait in its golden frame. We sit before your vacant chair As the family gather round the table. You, Fred, are still there Beside your grave we often stand With heart both crushed and sore. We miss you more and more. Lovingly remembered by wife, Myrtle, Linda, Ross and Patsy.

IN MEMORIAMs

In loving memory of our dear daughter Brenda Elizabeth, who passed away Jan. 18th, 1974 in her 21st year.

When one's we love are taken, we often wonder why. For we don't always get the chance to say the last goodbye. And in our hearts is sadness, that we cannot explain. How wonderful it would be, to see her once again. Since those whose names are written.

In God's book of life, Will live on his new earth, Ever free from death and strife!

Always remembered by Eileen and Bill Grier, Wasaga Beach. Brothers - Brian, Richard and Perry. Sister - Barbara Anne.

In loving memory of our dear niece, Brenda Grier, who passed away Jan. 18th, 1974, in her 21st year. Lovingly remembered by Aunt Elva, Uncle Jack and family.

In loving memory of a dear granddaughter, Brenda Grier, who passed away Jan. 18th, 1974 in her 21st year. No farewell was spoken, No time to say good-bye. You were gone before we knew it, And we will always wonder why. Sadly missed by Grandma and Grandpa Knuff.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farney wish to announce the birth of a boy Nathan Robert on Jan. 9, 1975.

Obituary

Wm. Axten dies in PGH at 74

William (Bill) Axten died suddenly on December 30, 1974 at the Penetanguishene General Hospital. He was 74 years old.

Born in Toronto on October 15, 1900, to William and Margaret Axten, both deceased, he spent the last 34 years of his life in Penetanguishene where he was employed at the Fern Shoe Company from 1940 to 1968. He was also a member of Georgian Lodge 348. Funeral services were held on January 3, 1975 at the Beausoleil Funeral Home conducted by Rev. Alan McLaughlin. REAL ESTATE REPORTS by Bill Player
Responsibility of the Broker to the Vendor
When a real estate Broker accepts an exclusive contract from a Vendor, to market his property, he is accepting an obligation and must do everything in his power to render top-notch service to this client. He must be completely familiar with all aspects of the real estate field. He must be extremely capable in the area of finding and qualifying a prospect, in showing the property to the prospect, in obtaining the offer from the prospect, and completing the transaction to the vendor's satisfaction. He must be able to develop an empathy with his prospects. In other words, he must put himself in the other person's shoes so that he can see and feel as his client sees and feels. When a Vendor chooses a Realtor who possesses a complete knowledge of his product and thorough training in all aspects of real estate, he should anticipate having his property marketed at its highest market value in a reasonable length of time and on terms satisfactory to everyone concerned. The people at W.C. Player Real Estate Ltd. Broker, 105 Yonge St., Elmvalle, 322-1991 are trained and equipped to do a professional job on your behalf. Why not call us today!
