Thievery's in the air

Spring is in the air and so is thievery. Whether it's the changing of seasons or the winter break, it's hard to tell, but two breakins were reported at two Penetanguishene Schools.

On Sunday March 16, town police officials were informed of a break-in at Corpus Christi elementary school. Entry was gained by breaking through a window on the roof. Nothing has been reported stolen. The incident is still under investigation.

On the following day police received a report of a break and entry into St. Joseph's elementary school. Once again entry was gained through a roof door. To date only a tape player has been reported missing. Three rooms were entered and police will have to wait until the teachers return from their holidays to see if anything else is missing.

Everyone's reporting thefts

Everyone seemed to be reporting thefts during the past week.

Three 40 ounce bottles of liquor and one 26 ounce bottle of rye were reported missing from the Penetanguishene Curling Club on Friday. The door was unlocked at the time, as people were working inside.

Orval Lamoureux of 209 Fox Street reported a stolen 1973 ski-doo from his residence on Sunday. The case is still under investigation.

A snowmobile was recovered from the Cedar Point area on Sunday after it had been reported missing earlier in the day.

The vehicle belonged to Kevin Ramsay of room number seven in the Commodore Hotel.

Two juveniles were involved in the incident and may be charged according to the police.

Missing bicycles and a TV set

Now on to missing bicycles. Stephen and Brian Beausoleil of 75 Edward Street informed police that their bicycles were missing from a garage on Sunday morning. Both have since been recovered.

Finally, someone appears to have made off with a television set from the Brule Hotel. Hotel officials told police that a 10 inch black and white TV was stolen from a room in the hotel last week. The approximate value of the set was estimated at $200. Police are still investigating the case.

OPP report

Since it started on February 17, over 200 senior citizens have taken advantage of the program. Assistance for senior citizens will be offered at least until April 15. Puddicombe, Jeremy Baker, Keith Press, Judy Limoges and Mike Price. From the look on Price's face, he probably has a winning hand.

Setting up for Winterama 1976

Remember those headlines in the Citizen crying "Winterama may be dead"? Hopefully that will not happen again next year.

At a windup meeting last Thursday the 1974 winterama committee set up a provisional winterama committee to "do a little bit of the spade work throughout the year" according to Christine Rollinson, a member of the 1974 committee.

Rollinson said the provisional committee will call a meeting in the fall to organize for Winterama 1976.

Members on the provisional committee are: Peter Shirriff, Rolande Desroches, Paul Rollinson, George Varney and Dr. Gauthier.

The 1975 Winterama committee was organized at the last minute when it appeared the festival would be cancelled for lack of interest.

Although the 1975 committee had only seven weeks to organize the event Winterama 1975 was judged to be better than in any of the preceding five years.
