Kinsmen give piano to seniors

The Kinsmen Club of Midland presented the senior citizens of the Senior Citizens Apartments at 559 King Street with a Heitzman piano for their common room Tuesday night.

The Kinsmen learned of the need for a piano at the apartments and were able to meet that need with a good used piano. Dunlop's of Moonstone co-operated with the Kinsmen in arranging the purchase of the piano.

George Grant, the superintendent at the apartments, said that the piano would be very useful. He plays the piano by ear and pointed out that now that they have a piano they would be able to have musical evenings. The senior citizens will bring in people who can play and put on special events, to supplement the senior citizens' current bingo and card evenings.

Kinsmen John Butler and

Bob Mahoney presented the piano to the apartments in a small ceremony on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Vi Hewitt

Chairperson of the entertainment and social committee thanked the Kinsmen for their gift and then all present sang "For they are jolly good fellows" to the accompaniment of George Grant on the piano.

Midland Bulls in Barrie rugby snow bowl

On Saturday, March 8, 1975 the Barrie Rugby Football Club hosted a Winter Snow Bowl. Members of the Midland Bulls, various other clubs from Toronto and Southern Ontario. This 15-a-side tournament was designed by the Barrie club to be an entertainment series prior to the regular spring season.

In the first game, Midland team defeated the higher ranked Metro Toronto Police squad by a score of 4-0. After a stalemate for most of the game, Midland's scrum came up with a hard push into Toronto's end zone where Sid Caffrey "touched" the ball down.

The second game saw Midland up against the host Barrie side which ended in a hard-fought 8-4 win for Barrie. Midland's only score came from a play started by J. Mikel Ruth and finished by Sandy McKillup, who dived over the line after a 20 yard dash.

Midland lost to Kitchener - the eventual tournament victors - in their final game, by a score of 12-0. Midland displayed a great deal of power in the forward pack, in all three games. What the team lacked in conditioning, they certainly made up in enthusiasm both on and off the field.

Midland Club begins in late May, with games lasting until late June. After a summer break, the team resumes its final fall session from September to the end of October. Actual games and dates for the Midland team will be announced by the Ontario Rugby Union in April.

The Midland team begins serious training in early April for their first pre-season game against Peterborough on May 11. Anyone interested in further information on the Midland Bulls, please contact the Club's President, Doug Cole at 526-9619 or 526-7838.
