Poem in memory of Elsie Prowse

On Monday evening, March 24, the members of Margaret Rebekah Lodge held their annual open house. There were 84 members and approximately 100 visitors in attendance. Members of Couchiching Lodge, Orillia, Beaver Lodge, Barrie, Ideal Lodge, Midland and Glen Lodge, Elmvale came by chartered bus. Mrs. Ivy Moore welcomed the visiting members prior to opening the lodge meeting. There were four distinguished members present: Mrs. Sally Laidlaw, past assembly president; Don MacEachern, grand lodge centinel; Mrs. Freda Heels, past assembly chaplain; and Mrs. Dolly Burnett, district deputy-president.

Since our last lodge meeting on March 10, the Margaret Rebekah lodge musician, Mrs. Elsie Prowse, passed away suddenly, on March 14. During the meeting Mrs. Kay Caudle presided at the piano for us. John Tobin sang Mrs. Prowse's favourite song "How Great Thou Art". Following this Mrs. Jeannie Brown recited a poem she had composed in her memory.

At the close of Lodge the visiting guests were admitted and welcomed into the lodge room by our Noble Grand. The members entertained them by putting on a comical fashion show and wedding skit. There was also a penny auction sale and some raffles. At the close of the evenings activities a lovely lunch was served.

An Ode To Elsie Prowse

We salute the musician
She has gone to her rest,
Like a faithful Rebekah
She gave us her best,
Her memory is sweet
We will follow her trend,
And be good Rebekahs
To the very end.

Covenant Players and Charlie Brown

CWL meet at Victoria Harbour

by Lorraine Kindy
The Catholic Women's League of St. Mary's Parish held its annual St. Patrick's Day tea March 19. Mrs. Emery Cadeau opened the tea by lighting the candles at the head table, while welcoming everyone present. Mrs. Irene Beauchamp, Mrs. M. Juneau, and Miss Alma Juneau did the honours of pouring tea during the afternoon.

Reverend O. Maloney, Mrs. Emery Cadeau, Mrs. Ann Lachapelle, Mrs. Grace Brousseau, and Mrs. Dianne Moreau greeted people at the door. In charge of the collection were Mrs. Adrienne Alphonse, assisted by Rose Juneau.

Mrs. Cecil MacDonald held a raffle on a large two-layer cake which was won by Mrs. Griffiths of John Street in Victoria Harbour. Mrs. Mary Roskoff, Mrs. Hilda Savage, and Mrs. Evelyn Roy, were in charge of the bake sale from which the proceeds will go to the medical centre.

The CWL would like to thank everybody who helped to make the bake sale such a success. Mrs. Anne Lachapelle would like to thank her many helpers in the kitchen and the ladies that waited on the tables.

The next CWL meeting will be April 10th with a potluck supper at 7 p.m. in the parish hall. Election of officers will be held the same evening and everyone is invited to attend and have an opportunity to become involved in their parish.

On March 27, the girl guides and brownies under the leadership of Liz Webb, Mrs. McColligan, Marg Evans, Lorraine Kindy, and Junior leaders Debbie Juneau and Christine Cadeau visited the senior citizens for an Easter party.
