Student receives award

Prosper Beausoleil of Penetanguishene recently won the 1974-75 Swift Canadian Hotel and Restaurant Award ($50.00) for high academic standing in the Hotel and Restaurant Administration Program at Humber College.

Voyage exchange a Quebec

Le gouvernement fédéral promet de donner $2000, aux élèves des 7e et 8e années, pour effectuer un voyage d'échange à Québec. Le gouvernement provincial en promet $1,200.

Le 20 mai, cette année encore, 120 élèves, accompagnés de 8 enseignants, M.A. Gravelle conseiller, se rendront à Québec. La, ils rencontreront les élèves de l'école S. Agappit avec laquelle ils sont jumelés. Nos élèves se rendront dans leur nouvelle famille pour y passer la nuit.

Le 21 mai, ces visiteurs reviendront à l'école avec leurs amis pour y partager les activités de la journée. Dans l'après-midi, le groupe de Penetanguishene se rend à Ste Anne de Beaupré en longeant la route 15 B. Il voient la campagne et les fermes des canadiens-français, et arrêtent quelques instants aux châteaux Memorency, Au Sanctuaire, ils visitent le Cyclorama et les entourage. Le soir on revient à l'école pour y passer quelques heures en compagnie des jeunes québécois.

Le 22 mai - La journée se passe à visiter la Capitale le musée du Vieux Fort, La Citadelle, Les Edifices du Parlement, L'université Laval, l'Aquarium, le vieux séminaire, le vieux Québec la basilique du Québec, les plaines d'Abraham. Il faut aussi garder du temps pour visiter quelques magasins; sentir ce que c'est que jour du privilège de s'entendre servi en français.

Le 23 mai - On quitte Québec pour aller visiter Montréal; la métropole; le vieux Montréal qui fait revivre Maisonneuve, Place Bonaventure, place Ville Marie. On prend le dîner à Montréal et à l'heure convenue, on se dirige vers l'Ontario.

Les motifs qui ont porté les élèves a choisir Québec comme ville à visiter est que cette ville est celle où la culture et la langue française s'épanouissent le mieux et le plus librement, grâce à l'ambiance et aux moyens culturels.

Puisqu'un grand nombre de nos aieus viennent de la Nouvelle France, il est très intéressant de faire connaissance avec cette partie du Canada.

Recreation conference

The Tiny township parks, recreation, and community centre board will be hosting a Recreation service conference, with the theme "Recreation is good business", at the Wyebridge Community centre on Saturday.

Dick O'Connor, consultant with the Ministry of Culture and Recreation will address the conference and discuss important changes in the Community Recreation Centres Act during the morning session of the day-long conference.

A panel discussion in the morning will feature Ron Marchildon of Penetanguishene speaking on planning and staffing, Peter Cavill talking about organization, direction, and co-ordination.
