Eric Rankin hands over the gavel to newly elected president Jack Wedge during Saturday's Annual Ladies night and Inauguration of New Officers meeting for the Penetanguishene Lions Club. ## Lions carnival set for Saturday

The annual Lions Club Street Carnival is going to be held twice this summer and the first one starts this Saturday at 6:00 p.m.

Normally the Penetanguishene Lions hold their Street Carnival on the first Monday in August, but as part of the kickoff celebrations for Penetanguishene's Old Home Week the Lions added another Street Carnival to their summer schedule of activities.

Robert Street West from Main Street to St. Ann's Church will be closed off for the street carnival. Games of chance, food and candy, music and a number of special surprises are planned for the event.

While you're at the street carnival pick up a few tickets on the Grew Sunfish Sailboat which will be raffled off at the August carnival. Tickets are available from any member of the Lions Club.

Lions may donate playground equipment

The Penetanguishene Lions are seriously considering supplying the Waterfront Community Park with playground equipment when the town park reaches an appropriate stage of development. At last Saturday's annual Lions Club Ladies Night and Inauguration of New Officers meeting, newly elected president Jack Wedge indicated that if the park is completed this year the Lions would supply the equipment. However, he added that no cost estimate for such a project has been worked out yet and the idea of supplying the equipment was still at a preliminary stage. To date a delegation from the Lions Club has approached the amalgamated arena, parks and recreation board to notify the members of the Lions' interest in the project.
