

Charlie Farquharson

Charlie and Charles

Charlie and Charles paid visits to Midland during last week's three day Old Fashioned Summer Fun Days and Sidewalk Sale, to meet residents and tourists, and promote their latest books at the Huronia Office Services store on King Street.

Friday afternoon Charlie Farquharson, alias Don Herron, showed up to delight a crowd representing all age groups with his banter and Parry Sound wit.

But Saturday's guest was a little more quiet. Charles Templeton, newsman, broadcaster and author, visited the sidewalk sale to promote his book The Kidnaping of the President. He has a summer cottage in the area.

Mid-week visitors common in summer in Vasey area

by Eleanore Edwards and Mrs. Harold Graham

During this time of year many people are on holidays and visitors during the week are very common. Last Wednesday Mr. and Mrs.

Nathan Edwards and their granddaughter Sandra Wylie and her friend Jackie Wilson visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGurn and family at Balsam Lake.

Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs.

Graham Taylor from Willowdale and who were holidaying at Wendake Beach spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Faint.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jones and Michelle attended the Simpson

McLeod wedding at Esson Presbyterian Church on Saturday.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doakes of Guelph visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards and Blake and visiting their grandparents this week are Steven and Jeffrey Brown of Dalston.

The men of the Vasey United Church conducted the service on Sunday July 20 with a male choir and Mr. Orval Edwards, Mr. Brian Jones, and Mr. Grant Robinson leading the worship, Mr. Jones and Mr. Robinson giving the sermon on Christian Leadership and Education. The Sunday of July 27 will be a church holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robinson enjoyed a trip this past week through the Southern part of Ontario.

Valerie Watt is visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pomeroy of Bala.

Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McGrath, Greg and Kim of Windsor visited Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hamilton and boys.

Visitors during the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Melvern Isaac and family were Mr. and Mrs. Brian Lawrence of Bancroft and with the Isaac's this week is Mrs. Bell of Scarborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Bousten of Toronto were Thursday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. J. McGregor of Weston visited Mr. and Mrs. Orval Edwards and on Friday Mr. and Mrs. Edwards attended the graduation of Mary Ann Black R.N. at Convocation Hall, University of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Healey and Lynn attended the Stevenson - Brewer wedding in Bracebridge on Saturday.

The Ham and Salad Supper sponsored by the Vasey U.C.W. will be held on August 3 from 5 to 7:30 p.m. in the church basement, advance tickets may be purchased from the members and the prices are adults $3.50, Children 6 to 12 - $2.50 and under six free.

"Where else can you get all you want for so little?"

Mrs. Clare McKeown visited Mrs. Earl Barnett at Bass Lake on Thursday, and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Mel McKeown of Bass Lake visited at Mr. and Mrs. Clare McKeown's.

Mrs. Percy McGrath of Orillia was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Benke and Andrew spent Saturday in Toronto visiting relatives.

Pair take plunge, wed at Barrie

If the institution of marriage is all its cracked up to be things should be running a lot smoother at the Midland Times as of Thursday last week.

That's when the capable but somewhat erratic editor of the Times, Jim Park, finally said the words, "I do," taking Debbie Rolling for his wife at a civil marriage ceremony at Barrie Provincial Court. Debbie is a past-up artist for Markle Community Newspapers.

It was a little over a year ago when Park was managing editor of the Citizen that a concerned nun advised him to find "a good wife." Despite advance warning she was still shocked at the condition of Park's car - back seat stuffed with the windows, newspapers, and discarded stories - when she accepted a ride home. Marriage, she was certain, would straighten him out.

Frequent visitors to the Times office are invited to drop by and check it out. Rumours are flying around town that the editorial office is sparkling, bright, clean and tidy. Where once only the most wary traveller would dare tread, little children play and songbirds sing for joy.
