Vandals causing havoc in Waubaushene area

by Bill Turnbull

Dear friends,
Vandals have been playing havoc in the Waubaushene area these past few weeks. I understand several homes have been broken into. Talking with Mr. Deviney of Ash Street, in Waubaushene, he tells me someone climbed in through his bedroom window and ransacked his house, taking several articles, including his case of beer. Again two days later his car was stolen and found by police with the windshield smashed. Isn't it a hard enough struggle today trying to get by on your pension without having this thrown at you? At this press time I understand several arrests have been made.

February 25
Well, I must say getting up this morning we found a little frost and fog, but around 9 a.m. we knew it was going to be a beautiful day and sure enough, it was. J.M. came into the store for his usual cigars and to say that several crows and sea gulls were spotted around the bay. Living in the 'bush' as I do, I have seen the chipmunks and small squirrels coming around. Haven't seen too many birds this year though, something must be keeping them away. I would like to say that 'spring is just around the corner', but I know as you do, we will have a shock one of these days.

February 27
Anyone for pea soup or clam chowder? I understand that every Friday evening our branch of the Royal Canadian Legion in Waubaushene hopes to have something going for their members and friends, if all goes well, there will also be musical entertainment.

As I was looking back through 1975, I came upon some photos taken of an accident on Highway 103. These show what can happen on any highway. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt at this time, but it could have been a real tragedy if the school bus that was involved had been stopped. Mr. Raymond of Waubaushene was travelling south on Highway 103 and was about to drop off the Tournour children at the Forest Harbour Rd. Luckily the kids Randy, Debbie and Leona were near the front of the bus. Doesn't it make you think?

Remember back in July when Fred and Ely Webster of Waubaushene had their home gutted by fire. Talking with the Websters, they hope to move into their new home very soon. Fred has been going hard at it all winter. The new home is built on the same property. We wish you all good luck this time.

Yours very truly,
Billy Turnbull

IN MEMORIAM    IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear Father and Grandfather, David Martin, who passed away March 17, 1964. There's a rose in memory's garden, That grows because of you. And whenever my heart wanders there, Then that rose blooms anew. Lovingly remembered by Greenville, Adele and Family.

Result of council's policy

Coldwater clerk resigns

Coldwater clerk treasurer Mrs. Arla Miller will leave her position with the village effective March 31.

Mrs. Miller's resignation comes after Coldwater council introduced a resolution not to allow more than one member of any family to work for the village at one time.

Mrs. Miller cited personal reasons and the application of her daughter for a village job as reasons for leaving but stated she couldn't understand why there should be any controversy.

The new policy was brought into effect in the village late in February.

Coldwater councillors Russ Creighton and Cyril Martin had also resigned from village service last week but their resignations were withdrawn a few days later.

Brandon claimed the three resignations, coming within the same week, were just a coincidence.

Lorraine Brown honoured by Coldwater society recently

Williams, the newly appointed secretary-treasurer of the Society; president Don Bell and his wife Helen; Mr. and Mrs. Graetrix; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards.

Mr. Edwards is the area's representative on the Simcoe County Board of Education.

President Don Bell expressed the opinion of all the executive when he said the 1975 Fair was a definite success, with satisfied exhibitors and a sell-out for the Saturday night dance.

He advised that the 1976 Fair Days were October 1 and 2, with the races beginning at 1:30 p.m. on the Saturday. The Midway has been booked as well as the orchestra for the Saturday dance.

Don thanked the executive and directors as well as the many volunteers who helped with the Fair.

Councillor Tom Dean, representative for the Village of Coldwater, extended congratulations to the executive and advised the council would be willing to help in any way possible.

Further words of congratulations were extended by Ingram Amos, Reeve of Medonte Twp.; Chester Martin, former clerk of Coldwater; Lloyd Dunlop, past president of Elmvale Fair and Jim Hancock, former Agricultural Representative for Simcoe North.

Guest speaker was Ted Maxwell, Area two Superintendent from the County Board of Education.

Mr. Maxwell stated that many teachers asked to be placed in a rural school so they may experience the excitement of the Fall Fairs.

He advised that the Board of Education supports the participation of the teachers and students in the fairs.

Those attending the dinner, served by the Anglican Church Women Association, enjoyed a trip to China with the aid of the coloured slides, shown by Hunter Russell of Midhurst.
