Provincial court news

Four people pleaded guilty to charges of impaired driving in provincial court in Penetanguishene Thursday.

Radolph Bressette, 64, of Victoria Harbour was fined $200 and surrendered his driving privileges after a single car accident on Hwy. 12 caused $500 damage to his car last year.

Glen Deschamps was charged with impaired driving in Penetanguishene January 11. He pleaded guilty and was fined $150.

Charles Moreau was found to be impaired while driving a van type truck in Port McNicoll after being warned not to drive by an OPP constable. He was fined $200.

Lawrence Pearson was charged with impaired driving February 19 when his car was spotted swaying from side to side of Highway 27. He was fined $200.

Takes ski-doo
An 18-year-old Victoria Harbour man received an absolute discharge in provincial court in Penetanguishene after pleading guilty to taking a '74 Ski-doo.

Gerard Willard Moreau abandoned the ski-doo a short way from the scene of the theft when it bogged down in heavy snow. Provincial judge N.J. Nadeau noted the offence was "more in the nature of a prank."

Break and enter
Lawrence John Lovell, a 20-year-old Toronto man, pleaded guilty to charges of break and enter and possession of stolen property in provincial court in Penetanguishene Thursday.

Lovell admitted breaking into cabins in the Penetanguishene area December 19 and removing tools and household goods. He was apprehended that day driving a stolen 1974 GMC in Tay township.

He told the court the cabin had been ransacked prior to the time he and a friend broke in. Damage in the cabin was approximately $1000.

Lovell's sentence was suspended for the length of his 18 month probation.

Guilty of assault
A 25-year-old Coldwater man pleaded guilty to a charge of possession of a weapon for purpose of assault in provincial court in Penetanguishene Thursday.

Robert Donald Vivian was charged November 26 after swinging a .303 calibre rifle at a man he had had an argument with in a Waubushene beverage room. When the rifle broke, Vivian threw part of the weapon at the man.

The argument began when Vivian was alleged to have entered the bar using obscene language and, when the bartender cut him off, Vivian is supposed to have thrown a salt shaker in his direction.

He was approached by another larger man in the bar when the argument began and Vivian went to the car to get the unloaded rifle.

He was fined $250 and placed on probation for six months. He was forced to give up the rifle.

Probation
A Port McNicoll man was placed on six months probation after pleading guilty to a charge of common assault. Wayne Woods was alleged to have struck his now estranged wife in the Port McNicoll Inn last year.

Fined $300
Wayne Simpson, 23, of Port McNicoll was fined $300 and left on the balance of a previously imposed probationary period following an appearance in provincial court at Penetanguishene Thursday.

Simpson pleaded guilty to a charge of theft under $200 August 2 when he stole $37 from the Delawana Inn in Georgian Township. Simpson had been placed on probation for 20 months when he was convicted of breaking and entering the previous May.

Simpson's employer, Howard Monteith, appeared as a character witness for Simpson noting the accused had been employed by his masonry company since November.

Monteith said Simpson was hired as a labourer but worked his way up to co-ordinator. "He's my key man and the easiest guy I've ever had to work with," said Monteith.

"Wayne Simpson can have a job with me any time."
Judge N.J. Nadeau felt, in view of Simpson's present work record, a fine was just punishment.

Dangerous driving
A Toronto man lost a plea of not guilty to a dangerous driving charge in provincial court at Penetanguishene Thursday.

Gabriel Santille, 23, was charged following complaints by Doug Scott and Ron Mark, both of Toronto. He was fined $400 lost his driving licence for a year and was forced to pay $325 for damage to the Scott car.

Scott and Mark complained Santille and two passengers in his car harassed and taunted them while they were southbound on Highway 103 August 4. They claimed they were being followed too closely on the highway and when Scott made an obscene gesture at the Santille car the occupants of the car became infuriated and Santille attempted to cut the Scott car off the shoulder of the road.

The complainants stated Santille followed them into Waubushene where he cut off their car again and his two passengers left their vehicle and attempted to damage the Scott car.

Scott and Mark said one of the other passengers attempted to lift the hood and pull the coil wire from Scott's distributor and successfully cracked one side of the windshield before they began throwing rocks and bottles at the car.

Santille told the court Scott would not let him pass on Highway 12 and he wanted to ask him why.
Santille is a self employed roofer.

"This goes beyond simple negligence," stated Judge N.J. Nadeau when he passed sentence.
