Vasey UCV

The Vasey United Church Women met at the home of Mrs. Ken Rummy on March 31. The program was under the leadership of the Stewardship Committee. Mrs. Nelson Edwards read a short story entitled "God in the Budget" and Mrs. Earl Jones read a news item on "Why contribute to missions?".
 Mrs. Ken Rummy showed slides and gave a very interesting commentary on "Camp Trapping" located in Northern B.C., where her son and son-in-law are counsellors. The small wilderness camp for twelve boys, age 14 to 17 who have been recently in the court are challenged to vigorous physical training and self discipline and through this attention and love help them to rediscover themselves to continue in the everyday life.
 The business included plans for a table of good used clothing and a bake table for the church auction to be held in June, and also a donation was made towards the new Huronia Hospital in care of the Ladies Auxiliary.
 Lunch was served by Mrs. Orval Edwards, Mrs. Ross Faint, Mrs. Nelson Edwards and the hostess.

Birds visits

Port home
 by E. Lorraine Orr
 With a crash and a flutter a large partridge entered the living room via a double picture window in the home of John Moreau of Simcoe Ave. in Port Mico. Mr. Moreau is the owner and operator of the Lucky Dollar Store.
 The confused bird plummeted across the room, knocking over a rubber plant and frightening Mrs. Moreau, before expiring on the rug.
