A MESS at MSS tonight

A good cross-section of the community will take part in the MESS at Midland Secondary School's Open House tonight.

M.E.S.S. stands for "Muddled Education System of the Seventies", and is the title for a panel discussion open to the public on that night.

Mr. William Barnett, head of the Guidance Department at the school, will act as moderator for what promises to be a lively and controversial open-end dialogue. Members of the panel are as follows: Parents, Jean Hartman and Shirley Whittington; Students, Bobbie Lamoureux and Tim Blanchard; Industrialists, John Leitch and Robert Hartog; Teachers, Bryan Ostrowski and Bill Smiley.
