

Waubauskene seniors entertain Port McNicoll club

by Charlotte Gerdes Waubauskene Senior Citizens Club 438, entertained the Port McNicoll Senior Citizens Club 365, on Monday April 26, in the St. John's Parish Hall.

Mr. Cliff Thompson introduced the President, Mrs. Hazel Bunton, who welcomed all the members from Port McNicoll.

Mr. Thompson was in charge of the afternoon's entertainment, and he told several humorous jokes. Mrs. Bunton read a very humorous story entitled "Why I had To Fire My Secretary". Mrs.

Rosemary Gulliver read a funny poem called "The Bedpan".

Then Mr. Thompson read another poem entitled "Old Age Is Hell". Mrs. Gulliver gave a very interesting talk on the Tarsands of Alberta. She passed around a small jar containing a sample of the tar sand, for everyone to see what it looks like before the oil is extracted from it by means of steam. Following this everyone joined in a singsong while some of the members set out bingo cards, which everyone enjoyed playing for a penny a card.

Golda Beech and Tyall Thorpe, both from Port

McNicoll were the lucky winners of the two door prizes. Florence Archer of Port McNicoll received a gift for having the most great-grandchildren, and Magga Hund received a gift when she discovered she was drinking out of a lucky tea cup.

Cliff Thompson announced the Senior Citizens would be holding bingo every Friday night in the Oddfellow Hall on Hazel Street, in aid of their building fund. The ladies had a small bazaar and bake table and the proceeds from this went to the building fund. The men had on display a beautiful nest of three tables they had made, and are taking orders for these. Anyone wishing to order a set contact Cliff Thompson or any of their members.

Mrs. Bertha Hoddinott Vice President of the Port McNicoll thanked the Waubauskene Club for their kind invitation and the afternoon they had all enjoyed so very much.

Sharing her knowledge

All those who attended the Horticulturalists meeting last Monday came away knowing considerably more than they came with. The guest speaker, Martha Veldhuis from Dundas, Ont., kept the interest of everyone there, and her touches of humour were well taken.
