

Ladies entertain

Pouring tea at the Annual Spring Tea at St. Paul's United Church on Friday was Mrs. Clifford Newburn. The tea was sponsored by the ladies of the church.

St. Paul's holds spring tea

St. Paul's annual Spring Tea was held last Friday in the church hall on King Street. Tea and homemade cookies and cakes were baked and served by the ladies of the parish.

Pouring tea was Mrs. Clifford Newburn who recently celebrated her 50th wedding anniversary. There was also a plant and homemade bakery table.

Proceeds from the tea went to the ladies of the church to enable them to carry on their work for St. Paul's.

Month end report

Total of 484 students registered with Manpower

A total of 136 regular vacancies and 21 casual vacancies were filled by the Canada Manpower Centre in Midland in the month of April. That figure includes 37 placements made by the student office in the Midland Civic Centre.

Manpower manager Don McNee noted in his month end report, that although the results were slightly below those for April 1975, they represent an increase over March 1975 totals.

A total of 484 students were registered at the student centre, bringing the total number registered at the centre to 1477 male and 885 female clients.

For the first time, a Canada Manpower Centre for Students will open in Penetanguishene on Tuesday, May 25. Through the cooperation of Penetanguishene Mayor Vince Moreau and town officials, space has been made available in the Tiny-Tay Peninsula Planning Board building, 14 Robert Street. The centre will be open for nine weeks.

The centre approved ten new Industrial Training Contracts and recommended that an additional 13 contracts be approved. Under an industrial training contract, an employer is reimbursed a portion of the trainees' and instructor's wages during the training period. Training is done by the employer on his premises where the plan is developed by Georgian College in conjunction with the employer.

The ten approved contracts cover such occupations as auto body repairperson, precision optical instrument assembler, heavy duty mechanic, auto mechanic, assistant manager, and antique furniture maker.

The 24 people attending the Manpower Training program nursing assistant course will be completing their training during May.

Other Manpower courses presently underway in Midland include optical lens processing and to visit the centre often to discuss the program interested in taking a training course is invited with one of the counsellors.

Your donation is deductible

Your donation to the Huronia association for the Mentally Retarded's fund-raising drive is tax deductible. Better still: your donation will be put towards the construction of a new facility for the Adult Rehabilitation Centre in Midland.

The campaign which hopes to net $25,000 will run for two weeks. The centre, which provides rehabilitation and assessment for handicapped persons, is bulging at the seams. The Ministry of Community and Social Services agrees—and has kicked in 80 per cent or $200,000 of the total cost of the new building. But the remainder is up to the public.

Please give generously when a volunteer knocks on your door.

Apologies to piano player

In an article entitled "Top music prizes presented" in this newspaper last week, a regrettable spelling mistake was made.

The article, which named the winners of prizes, scholarships, and trophies in the annual Y Men's music festival, listed several students as having been presented with awards for proficiency at the piano keyboard. The name of one of those pianists — Kathy Nemis — did not appear in that list. She was actually listed as Kathy Amos.

Many apologies go to Kathy Nemis, who is not Kathy Amos. And congratulations.
