Past Nobles Grand Club met in Coldwater

by Charlotte Gerdes
On Wednesday June 2, the Past Noble Grands Club of Margaret Rebekah Lodge No. 39, of Waubashene, met in the Craft Room of Jay-Haro Nursing Home in Coldwater. They were the guests of Mrs. Fern Rosbrough, a senior member of the club, who is a resident of the Nursing Home.

President Mrs. Gladys Todd of Victoria Harbour, presided over the meeting. A handmade double bed size quilt, crib quilt and hand crocheted pillow slips were displayed for Mrs. Rosbrough to see. These were made by the members and tickets are being sold on them, the draw to be made at their annual bazaar on Nov. 3.

At the close of the meeting a lovely social time was enjoyed by all and lunch was served by Mrs. Rebecca Lovring of Coldwater.

Each organization is asked to donate two loaves of sandwiches and 5 doz. small cakes, squares or cookies to the tea tables, five items for the penny auction table, grocery items for the food hampers that will be raffled off, home made baking from it.

The Tay-Waubashene Fair Committee has been meeting regularly in the Oddfellow's Hall making plans for the Fair to be held on July 31, at 1 p.m.

All organizations in Waubashene take part and realize the benefits

There will be activities for the children also. A mutt show, best decorated bicycle and games suitable for them. Pop, candy floss, hot dogs and fun. So come out one and all and enjoy yourselves on this one day of fun, and support your favourite organization.
