122nd. church anniversary

Harmonizers guests in Waverley

The Huronia Harmonizers, under the direction of Assistant Chorus Director, Bob Megaw, participated in the 122nd Anniversary service Sunday morning at Waverley United Church. The Chorus sang "I Come To The Garden Alone," "How Great Thou Art" and "Amazing Grace".

The service was conducted by Rev. Alan J. McLaughlin, who talked about the past, present, and future of the Church. He emphasized that although it is appropriate to celebrate 122 years of service to the community, it is up to the current members to ensure that the Church remains viable.

Several of those in attendance commented on how appropriate the selection of songs were, particularly "Amazing Grace," the lyrics of which refer to the past, present and future.

Following the service, sandwiches and coffee were served. The Huronia

Harmonizers sang another song which they felt was in keeping with the Christian message — "Have A Happy Day."

The Chapter members who participated in the service were pleased to have been involved, and also were delighted at the many favourable comments regarding their performance. It is always a pleasure to perform for such an appreciative group of people.
