Huron Park graduates 51

Huron Park principal W.H. Watson commended 51 grade eight students at graduation ceremonies held at the school on Monday night. He thanked them particularly for their work in personally befriending and assisting the trainable mentally retarded children who attend Huron Park.

After a devotional message by Rev. R.H. Barlow, Mrs. H. Veall conducted the grade eight choir in several musical selections. Kenneth Mills assisted at the piano. Kelly Goodman thanked speaker Shirley Whittington, and then graduation pins were presented to the boys and girls.

Mrs. E.R. Brennan presented the IODE History prize to Douglas Denne. Jeffery Camunias received two awards - one for Geography and a special grade eight music award.

Mrs. Veall also gave awards to Grade seven student Frank Lembo, and to Ruthann Rosewell for her outstanding contribution to the grade eight music program.

Alison Malcom was another double prize winner. She won an award for spelling, and also won the Finch Literary Ward, which was presented by Mrs. Blanche Trew, the first principal of Huron Park.

Kelly Goodman also walked home with two awards - one for public speaking, and the other a senior merit award.

The senior boys merit award was given to David Mattar.

Education were given to Steven Bell and Jane Barnett.

Doris Pausch won a match award. Hans Hainke was the science winner and Michael Ahrens picked up the award in French.

Following a valedictory address by Jeanette Proulx, the graduates recessed. While their parents and teachers enjoyed coffee, they attended a dance in the gymnasium.

Students compete for prizes

Murals decorate Villa Home

Winners were announced Saturday for the contest of murals at the Villa Nursing Home.

There were three categories in the contest and prizes were awarded to the winning contestants.

First prize of $25 in the mural contest was won by the Grade 6 students of Parkview School, second prize of $15 went to Liz Boker and Angela Jeannot of Bayview School, and winners of the $10 third prize were the grade eight students of Monsignor Castex.

In the individual division, Rodney St. Amant of Monsignor Castex took first place winning $15. Second prize of $10 went to Joann Hall of Bayview, and the $5 third prize was won by Paul Rowe of Bayview. Ten free passes to the show were awarded to the runners-up. Winners of the passes were Gord Higgs, Nadya Weber, Doug Wedel, Jamie Relf, Helen Georgas and Betsy Gammell all of Bayview School. Other winners were Paul Reditt, Alison

Malcolm, Tiny Bennett of Huron Park and Coleen Dolan of Monsignor Castex.

Birchwood Drive man wins Y's Men's draw

Don Hodges, 758 Birchwood Drive, Midland drove away from the Midland Y's men's annual car draw dance Saturday night in a spanking new Pontiac Firebird. His ticket was the last of 800 tickets drawn at the Sweepstakes event at the Civic Centre.

Second prize - a trip for two to Nassau - was won by Mr. Ivan McConnell, a visitor to the area from Goderich. Sandra Nesbitt, 420 Mildred Street, Midland walked away with a colour television. Dr. John Moore of Midland was the winner of the three-piece suit, donated by The Parlor in Midland.

The law firm of Teskey Heacock and Ferguson picked up a gift pack from Arcade Guardian Pharmacy as the holder of the 600th ticket drawn in the evening. A Kodak instamatic camera was won by Kim Smith of Port McNicoll. Holder of the 400th ticket drawn from the bin Arlene Staruk, 297 Fourth Street, Midland was the winner of a five band radio.

A shower head, donated by Jack Wilson, was won by Dr. Lary Melnyk of Midland. Ken Smith, Midland received a portable radio for his ticket. An electric drill was won by Clair Armstrong, Midland as the holder of the 100th ticket drawn from the bin.
