Wyebridge W. I. celebrates

by Mrs. Vern McClung
The Wyebridge Women's Institute recently celebrated its 75th anniversary with a buffet dinner and sing-song.

Mrs. E. Kirkup was presented with a token of appreciation for her work with the 4H Club.

Mrs. Wendy Dutton donated the pay she received for printing programs to the hospital fund. The members were pleased to accept her gift.

It was announced at a meeting that home economist Mrs. Susan Stanbury will be leaving the group.

The institute passed a motion to donate $25 to help with the new work shop for the retarded.

The president introduced Mrs. Donald Jacobs, the provincial board member for subdivision. Jacobs gave an interesting and inspiring paper entitled "Our Role in Life as an Institute Member". She mentioned that the institute has 50,000 members and branches in 69 countries.

District president, Mrs.

Ray Tuck brought greetings from Simcoe Centre.

The two women were presented with gifts from the Wyebridge branch.

Mrs. Broad of Midland added to the enjoyment of the evening by playing many pleasing selections and leading the sing-song.

Granted absolute discharges

Michael Washbourne, 18, of Georgetown and Donald Rogers, 19, also of Georgetown were granted absolute discharges by Judge L.T. Montgomery in provincial court Monday after pleading guilty to a charge of joyriding. The charge had been one of possession but was reduced to one of joyriding. The two young men had taken a canoe and attempted to paddle their way home in it but the canoe capsized. No damage was done to the canoe.
