

Waubauskene Women's Institute met recently

by Charlotte Gerdes
On Wednesday, June 16, the Waubauskene branch of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Leona Brown, President, Mrs. Charlotte Gerdes opened the meeting with the Institute Ode, followed by the Institute Creed. In the absence of Mrs. Charlotte Jefferis, due to illness, the office of Sec.-Treas. was filled by Past President, Mrs. Ilene Bell.

Plans to join the Friday afternoon "Sunshine Club" on a bus trip to Collingwood in the fall were made. A donation of money from Mrs. Fern Rosbrough, one of the members who is a resident in Jay-Haro Nursing Home in Coldwater, was received.

Mrs. Ilene Bell reported that Mrs. Hazel Bunton had to resign her office of district director, for health reasons. A new district director must be installed into this office at the September meeting. Plans for the Institute's share of donations and help needed for the Tay-Waubauskene fair on July 31 were also finalized. The next meeting will be on September 15, in the Institute Hall on Willow Street, starting with a Pot Luck Luncheon at 12:30 when we will have as our guests the members from the Warminster Branch. We hope to have as our guest speaker Mrs. Eva Gervais who will give a talk on her trip to Hawaii this spring.

The motto for June's meeting was: Go often to the home of a friend or neighbour for weeds choke the unused path. The Roll Call was answered by bringing a sample of our favourite cookie and a prize suitable for a card party prize.
Mrs. Gerdes closed the meeting with the Institute Grace and our hostess served tea while we sampled each other's favourite cookie.

Bridal shower held for Linda Dunkley

by Charlotte Gerdes
On Thursday evening, June 17, 80 women and young ladies gathered at the Oddfellow's Hall to fetter Miss Linda Dunkley, of Waubauskene at a bridal shower.

The hall was very artistically decorated for the occasion, with paper bells, umbrellas and an old fashioned well filled with beautifully wrapped gifts. Assisting the bride-to-be in opening the many lovely and useful gifts were her sister, Miss Patty Dunkley, who is to be her Maid of Honour, and Miss Barbara Walker and Mrs. Gail Potter, who are to be the bride's maids.

As each guest arrived they were handed 2 clothes pins and told not to cross their legs for the rest of the evening or they would have to forfeit the pins to the first person that saw them do so. Miss Shelley Thornton received a lovely prize for being the winner, she managed to retrieve 19 pins.

Following the opening of the gifts some of Miss Dunkley's friends served lunch. The beautiful array of food featured 2 specially made cakes. A lemon slab cake wishing Linda much happiness in the future, and the other one was made by her Mother Mrs. Betty Dunkley. It was an angel food type cake with a teenage doll in the centre hole. The bust of the doll was covered with frosting depicting an evening gown. The frosting on the cake being the skirt part of the gown. Miniature pink rosebuds decorated a panel down the front of the skirt. Very creative indeed.
Miss Dunkley is engaged to Mr. Donnie Barr of Coldwater, and they are to be married in Christ's Church, Waubauskene, on July 10, at 4:30 p.m.

Guild rummage sale

by Charlotte Gerdes
On Saturday, June 12 the Anglican Guild of Christ's Church Waubauskene, held a very successful rummage sale on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kullick on Coldwater Road.
The sale got underway at 11 a.m. and coffee and sandwiches were sold to tie the shoppers over the lunch hour. For several weeks the members of the Guild have been selling tickets on a hand crocheted afghan, donated by Mrs. Hazel Bunton. At the close of the sale a ticket was drawn and the lucky winner was Mrs. Laura Kullick.

Barbecued pancakes
Now I have seen everything - barbecued pancakes? On Saturday morning, June 12, the employees and their families, of Dresser Industrial Ltd. Orillia, were served a pancake breakfast. The pancakes were cooked outdoors over open charcoal on a monster barbecue, along with sizzling sausages. They were topped with real butter and maple syrup, orange juice and coffee completed the breakfast. To make it even more enjoyable the bosses did all the cooking and serving.

As each family finished eating the husbands enjoyed taking their wives and families on a tour of the plant, to see where Daddy works. I was one of the fortunate guests to be invited to this wonderful breakfast as this is where my husband Fred spends his spare time five days a week.

Cliff Thompson of Waubauskene would like to thank his friends and neighbours for the many cards, gifts, visits and phone calls he received while a patient in Soldiers Memorial Hospital.

Harbour UCW met

by Lorraine Kindy
The regular meeting of St. John's U.C.W. was held in the new church hall on Tuesday evening, June 8, 1976.
The meeting was opened with a thought from the President entitled "Ten Little Words - If it is to be, it is up to me".

The worship service, conducted by Mrs. Vera Keetch, was on the theme "What do you more than others?" A film "To Escape - To Return" - the church, refugees and development was shown. This portrayed the life of many of the refugees in Tanzania and Bangladesh and how they are being assisted by the church.
Mrs. McKibbin gave a short talk on Stewardship.

The minutes were read and approved and the roll call answered by a verse concerning "Sing".
The main item of business was the voting of a substantial sum to the Church Council for use in paying for new chairs and other expenses.

It was also decided that the U.C.W. would sponsor one boy for ten days at Camp Simpreca.
