

Bargain hunting

Looking about for something of value at a good price, these people had a great time searching through a wide variety of goods at the rummage sale held in the Midland Curling Arena last Saturday. This one only one of several taking place last weekend, with others in such places as the Mason's Hall in Sunnyside, and several peoples homes and garages.

OAKVIEW COMMUNITY HALL Wasaga Beach

WE WELCOME

Business operators — who are disturbed with the poor Tourist Business for the past few years!

WE WELCOME

Contractors who are having to work elsewhere to earn a living!

WE WELCOME

Motorists who are damaging their cars on our horrible roads!

WE WELCOME

Property owners who are unhappy with 20% tax increase past two years!

WE WELCOME

Those who are interested in a plebiscite for water, sewers and arena instead of railroading through as present council plans!

WE WELCOME

An inquiry as to why the estimate for operating costs for the operation of the new Hydro annexation doubled from $150,000.00 to $300,000.00 plus the original capital costs of $700,000.00

WE WELCOME

Those who are baffled by the erection of a million dollar bridge which prohibits trucks passing over it!

FOR ANSWERS TO ABOVE,
AND MANY OTHER ISSUES — PLEASE ATTEND!

Meet your association candidates who believe, with your help, at the December 6/76 Municipal Election, they can end the chaos now enveloping our community.
