visiting with Miss Margaret Graham. Weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Vic Wilson and family were Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Turcott and family of Peterboro. Terry Turcott remained for this week.

Marvin Hawke of Brampton is spending this week visiting relatives in the community.

The Vasey U.C.W. met on Wednesday evening, August 25, at the home of Mrs. Doug Smitham with twenty-two members and one visitor present. The program was under the Friendship and Visitation Committee of Mrs. Frank Smitham. Mrs. Ross Faint, Mrs. Sandy Wilson and Mrs. Manley Edwards. Mrs. Wilson read the scripture, Mrs. Smitham a poem called "Visiting" and Mrs. Faint gave the Prayer and read an article from the Observer called "Twenty years a Padre on 401". The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Manley Edwards.

During the business portion of the meeting the date of October 27 was set for the annual bazaar and on September 22 the members will visit the Georgian Manor. Quilting will again keep the members busy this winter and on October 6 Mrs. Margaret Racher from Orillia and Miss Margaret Tyson from Cordova will show slides and give a commentary of Miss Tyson's work there. The next meeting will be on September 29 at the home of Mrs. Mel McKeown at Bass Lake at 1:30 p.m.

Visitors during the past week with Calvin and Eleanor Edwards were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rummy of Kitchener. Miss Joyce Rummy of Toronto, Mrs. O.M. Vasey and Mrs. Gordon Gervais of Victoria Harbour, and Mrs. Frank Rynex of Midland.

On Sunday the Edwards

visited Mr. and Mrs. Eric Curry of Wyebridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Dutton of Toronto spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smitham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare McKeown have returned home after a holiday in Bermuda.

Mrs. Earl Jones spent the weekend in Barrie visiting her daughter, Donna Jones.

Sorry to report that Brad Jones had an accident on Saturday while riding his motor bike. At time of writing he is a patient in St. Andrews Hospital.

Shed demolished by recent fire

by Charlotte Cerdes
 On Thursday night at 9:55 p.m. The Waubashene Fire department was called out to the home of Jim Borrows on the 1st Concession of Matchedash Township when lightning struck a driving shed and the resulting fire completely demolished it. While there, another call came from the home of Clarence Woods in Port Severn when lightning again struck and damaged the television set. There was extensive smoke damage done, and the T.V. was ruined.

At 12:12 a.m. Friday morning fire fighters were again called out to the home of Edward Payne in Forest Harbour when lightning struck his summer home, and burned it beyond repair. The cottage was vacant at the time, while Mr. Payne was at his home in Acton at the time.

degrees and she was having difficulty breathing again at which time she was again rushed to St. Andrews Hospital and admitted for treatment. At the time of typing up this article the baby's condition is not known other than she is very sick. The prayers and thoughts of the residents of Waubashene are with the family of this little infant. Mr. Potter is a sidesman of Christ's Church, Waubashene.

Last Saturday August 21, the firemen held their annual picnic for the firemen and their families at the Springwater Provincial Park in Midhurst. A very enjoyable time was enjoyed by all, especially the children seeing all the animals.

VH couple hold 30th anniversary

On Monday August 23, the firemen were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Potter when their infant daughter began choking on something and stopped breathing. By the time the firemen arrived on the scene the baby was breathing again but was throwing up blood so the parents rushed her to St. Andrew's Hospital where she was kept for two days observation. She appeared to be progressing nicely and was released. On Thursday her temperature shot to 105

Marie, Norma, Carole, Jim and Kenny St. Amand held a 30th wedding anniversary for Theresa and Norman at the Victoria Harbour Royal Canadian Legion on Saturday, August 28. Many friends and relatives attended. The disc jockey was Jim Stubbing. Gifts were presented and a lovely luncheon was served.
