Anglican guild pot luck supper marks first meeting

by Charlotte Gerdes
On Monday evening the Anglican Guild met at the home of Mrs. Laura Kullick for its first meeting of the Autumn Season. The members sat down to a pot luck supper at 6 p.m. The meeting was presided over by the President Mrs. Sylvia

Duncliffe. The Members had a very active summer, having held a Garage Sale in June and assisted with the Tav-Waubushene Fair in July, then held a tea and bake sale in August. Mrs. Duncliffe reported the material for new Alter Curtains had been purchased and Mrs. Gwynne was going to make them for us. A motion was passed to engage a builder to put new steps at the side of the Church and new sidewalks. Tickets were handed out to the members to sell to raffie off a Ceramic Christmas Tree at their annual Bazaar in December. Mrs. Doreen Jones donated this lovely prize. Mrs. Betty Dunkley told the members that the little Foster Child the Guild sponsors in India, will soon be celebrating his birthday, a motion was made that they send some money to the Salvation Army to purchase him a gift.

The Guild also gave Mrs. Gerdes some money to buy some treats and lunch for the six walkers who will be taking part in the 9th Annual Walkathon on October 2. Robin Sallows, Susan and Sandra Jones, Karen Potter, Debbie Ladouceur and Cathy Conners. It's hoped the residents will sponsor these girls in their effort to raise money for Outreach. At the moment this is the only fund raising project for this worthwhile cause. To reach out and help others who are less fortunate than ourselves. Please give one of these girls a call and let them know your with them every mile of the walk, all fifteen of them. Plans to decorate the Church for the Thanksgiving Service on October 3 were made. The next meeting will be on October 18, at the home of Mrs. Mabel Jackson, when Mrs. Gerdes, Outreach Coordinator for the Coldwater-Medonte Parish will give a talk on Outreach.

Wilcox - King

Judith Wilcox weds Reg King

The marriage of Judith (Judy) Anne Wilcox of Midland and Reginald David King of Port McNicoll was solemnized in St. Paul's United Church Midland, on Saturday, July 31st at 4 p.m. The church was decorated with vases of orange carnations and white daisies for the occasion.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. Watson. Mrs. Joan Oster of Midland sang Handel's The Wedding Song and The Lord's Prayer during the ceremony and The Gift of Love during the signing of the register. She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Kathleen Mounteer.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Kelvin Wilcox of Midland was escorted down the aisle by her brother Bruce. The bride made her own gown for the ceremony which was of white peau de soie with a round neckline, long sleeves and train. The bodice and sleeves were of imported lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies, orange carnations and baby's breath. For something old, the bride carried an heirloom hankie which dates back to the First World War. This was a gift of her grandmother.

Gail Wilcox of Midland, sister of the bride was the maid of honour. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Bruce Wilcox of Hamilton, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Georgina King of Midland, sister of the groom. They were gowned alike in full length gowns of orange flowered sheer with orange underskirts. The dresses were empire waist, with scoop necklines and short puffed sleeves. They wore orange picture hats trimmed in flowered sheer and carried baskets of orange carnations and baby's breath.

Reginald David King is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David King of Port McNicoll. His best man was his brother William of Port McNicoll. The ushers were Gary Wilcox, of Trenton, brother of the bride and Bernard King of Port McNicoll, brother of the groom.

For a honeymoon trip to Ottawa the bride wore a beige pant suit with brown accessories. The

CBO plans activities

This year's agenda for the Cawaja, Balm and Ossossane Beaches Recreation Association is loaded with activities to keep the residents busy and entertained.

On Saturday, October 2 the association is holding its big dance of the year. This Thanksgiving Dance will be held at the Country Mill and will feature the Varitones. Cost is $5 per person.

On October 9 a 15-mile Bike-a-Thon will start out from the clubhouse.

Regular monthly meetings of the association are held at the clubhouse on the first Monday of each month. Residents are invited to come out and lend support with ideas and suggestions for the association.

Jones to take part in seminar

A Midland area girl, Ellen Jones, will be participating in this year's 4-H Citizenship Seminar.

Ellen was one of only three people in Ontario selected to attend the conference. She was chosen at a Provincial 4-H

Leadership Conference held earlier this summer. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Jones, RR2, Midland, Ellen will be attending the Ottawa Seminar from October 2 to 6. Chris Goody, assistant agricultural representative for North Simcoe, said Ellen has been an outstanding 4-H member in the County.

Hosts plowing match

On Saturday, October 16 the Centre Simcoe Plowing Match will be held at the farm of Bill Patterson, Lot 5, Concession 10, Sunnidale. A banquet will be held that evening at the Sunnidale Corners Hall. Contact Allan McNabb 728-1816 for tickets.

On Saturday, October 28 to October 29. The site for the show is two and a half miles west of Walkerton.
