Institute entertained the Warmminster Women's Institute. Twenty-seven members sat down to a delicious dinner. President Mrs. Charlotte Gerdes lead the members in the Institute Grace. Following the dinner Mrs. Gerdes opened the meeting with the Institute Ode and Creed. Mrs. Mae Littleton acted as secretary-treasurer in the absence of Mrs. Charlotte Gerdes who is recuperating from surgery, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Garnet Orton of Pine Grove, Ont.

The roll call was answered by either a superstition we believed in or a trick we had played on Halloween. Following the business part of the meeting Mrs. Gerdes introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Mrs. Jean Beaton, District President of the Women's Institute, who gave a talk on her trip to the W.I. Convention held in July at Charlottetown.

P.E.I. During her talk she mentioned how one of the speakers had given a lengthy talk on how important it is for the expectant Mother to follow a nutritious and sufficient diet while carrying her baby. Mrs. Beaton also showed a photo album of pictures she had taken of the various aspects of the convention and points of interest of Charlottetown. Mrs. Gerdes thanked Mrs. Beaton for her very enlightening talk and presented her, with a small gift of appreciation.

Several of the Warmminster members came dressed in Halloween Costumes and prizes were awarded, to Anna Stinson first prize, Muriel Sallows second prize and Mona Matheson third prize. In the absence of their President and Vice-President their Past President Mrs. Edward Sallows thanked the Waubushene W.I. for an enjoyable evening.
