Cody to speak

Jay Cody, past president of the Orillia Historical Society, will give an address on "Discovering Simcoe County" at the next meeting of the Simcoe County Historical Association, slated for November 9th at 8 p.m. in the Simcoe County Museum in Midhurst.

Mr. Cody worked from 1972 to 1974 on "Orillia History Retrieved", a LIP project which yielded 65 volumes of transcribed and indexed resource material now housed at the County Archives, the Orillia Library and the Ontario Archives.

From August 1974 to September 1975, Jay (and SCHA secretary Irene Perri) researched the history of Simcoe County from 1900 for an up-date of Hunter's work. He has been active in SCHA as well as in the Orillia club, and through his work on the television committees of both associations has been instrumental in placing 35 programs on Cable 8. He promises a relaxed, informal discussion on his research experiences - an app-each which should yield an interesting evening.
